Regulations for Lenten Sacrifice

- ★ All Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat for Catholics over 14.
- ★ Ash Wednesday (Feb. 17) and Good Friday (April 2) are days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59. Fasting means taking only one full meal and two smaller meals that, taken together, do not equal one full meal.
- ★ Throughout Lent, Catholics are especially encouraged to perform voluntary acts of penance.

Stations of the Cross on Fridays at 7pm during Lent

Due to COVID-19, no Living Stations of the Cross are permitted this year. Also due to projected low attendance and lack of volunteers to disinfect our Churches during week days, we will rotate the Stations of the Cross between our two Worship Sites this Lent. Please make a note of the schedule below and consider joining us for this powerful devotion:

Feb. 19th, March 5th, and March 19th at St. Therese Church

Feb. 26th, March 12th, and March 26th at St. Barbara Church

Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl

Each Lent, Catholic families across the country unite to put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through CRS Rice Bowl, families learn about how our sisters and brothers across the globe overcome hardships like hunger and malnutrition and how, through Lenten alms, we have the power to make the world a better place for all.

Our parish will once again participate in the CRS Rice Bowl this Lent. Rice Bowls will be available for you to pick up on the weekend of the First Sunday of Lent after all masses. You may return the rice bowls on the weekends of March 20th and 21st and March 27th and 28th.

You may donate online at : CRS Rice Bowl | A Catholic Program for Lent

Missalettes

We are sorry, but missalettes are no longer available. If you are interested in accessing the Mass readings and prayers, here are two websites where they are available.

USCCB - United States Conference of Catholic Bishops: <https://bible.usccb.org/>

Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe

Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This Collection supports the Church in more than 25 countries that still struggle to recover from former communist rule. Funds from this Collection support pastoral care, catechesis, building renovations, and seminary formation. Your support restores the Church and builds the future in this region. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the Collection next week. Envelopes can be found on the table at the entrance to church. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/ccee.

Daylight Savings Time

Don't forget to move you clocks ahead one hour next Saturday evening. We wouldn't want you to miss Mass. Sorry, but you will lose one hour's sleep.

Illinois Seniors Can Get Vaccinated at the United Center March 10-31

Please be aware of an opportunity for Illinois seniors age 65 and older to schedule COVID-19 vaccination appointments from March 10-31. Register beginning March 4 at Zocdoc.com/Vaccine. NOTE: The link will not be active until March 4. For those without internet access, call 312-746-4835. Drive-through and walk-up options available. Language assistance provided, accessible to people with disabilities.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to our “Elect” who attended the Rite of Election last Sunday with the accompaniment of their Godparents and Catechists at Holy Name Cathedral. Bishop Jeffery Grob welcomed catechumens from across the Archdiocese of Chicago as the chosen people for Baptism at the Easter Vigil. Even under COVID, there are five same Rite scheduled at Holy Name. What a sign of hope for our Church that those sisters and brothers will officially join our Church at this coming Easter. We thank God for them and we continue to pray for their journey toward Baptism.

SCRUTINY

Another important ritual for our Elect and Candidates during Lent is called Scrutiny. There will be three Scrutinies celebrated on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent. Oftentimes, people ask me, “What is a Scrutiny and why is it important?”

Paul Turner defines that “Scrutinies are rites of self-searching and repentance.” Scrutinies take place during Lent and the spirit of Lent is about repentance. Marked by the cross with ashes, we started the season of renewal and of hope and we heard these words, “repent, and believe in the Good News.”

Our Lenten journey is an intense period of purification and of conversion. This is true for our Elect and candidates too. They enter into this final phase of focused preparation, taking time to know their own sinfulness and their willingness to allow Jesus and the community of faith to help them.

This is why the Scrutinies include an exorcism, in which the priest or deacon prays that the spirit of good may replace the spirit of evil. Their purpose is not so much to examine the candidates’ mental readiness, but their spiritual readiness. Scrutinies offer the catechumens the support they need to approach the waters of Baptism worthily.

For those who are already baptized, the scrutinies invite us to embrace the same spirit of self-searching and repentance. At Easter, we renew our Baptismal promises as we see the catechumens baptized. Therefore, during Lent we renew our repentance as we see the elect scrutinized. The scrutinies remind us of the seriousness of our Christian life and inspire us to turn from evil and pursue good. They enliven our recommitment to Christ at Easter.

Peace

Fr. Francis

CHRIST'S CLEANSING OF THE TEMPLE

By Fr. John Cuff

A priest returned to his rectory one night, only to be met by a robber with a gun who demanded, "Your money or your life!" As the priest reached into his coat pocket for his wallet, the man saw his Roman collar and said, "You're a priest? Sorry, Father, my bad, you can go." To calm his jittery nerves the priest took out a cigarette, lit it, and offered one to the robber who replied, "No thanks, Father, I gave up smoking for Lent." Yes, the man had given up smoking during Lent while ignoring the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal." I think this story can help us better understand Jesus' cleansing of the Temple.

Like the desert (Lent week 1) and the mountain (week 2), the Temple was a place of special encounter with God. But today we don't see the glorious face of Jesus; we see his angry face. Jesus is not happy with what he sees, precisely because the Temple worship no longer reflected God's original idea for his Temple. The religious administrators of the Temple took pains to see that worshippers were duly supplied with high quality cattle, sheep and doves for sacrifice. They even made sure that the "dirty" foreign money people brought with them could be exchanged for the "holy" Temple money, at a fee of course. At the same time, however, they were plotting against Jesus. If they took all that trouble to please God in worship, why couldn't they take the trouble to investigate the claims of Jesus rather than condemn him so readily? For them, pleasing God had become something you do in the Temple and not in your relationship with people, which included foreigners. This kind of religiosity made Jesus really angry.

Some knowledge of the design of the Temple is needed here. The Temple had five sections or courts: (1) holy of holies (2) court of priests (3) court of Israel (4) court of women (5) court of Gentiles. Though these were seen as five concentric circles of sanctity, the design made room for everybody in the house of God. It was a universal house of God "for all the nations" where every man or woman on earth would find a place in which to pray. But the Jewish leaders forgot that and thought that it was meant for them alone. So they decided to turn the court of the Gentiles into a "holy" market for selling animals needed for sacrifice and for exchanging money. You could bring Roman money as far as the court of Gentiles but not into the other four courts. So the court of Gentiles was no longer regarded as part and parcel of the house of God; it had become a market place, pure and simple. Now it was this court of Gentiles that Jesus cleansed. He was making the point that the Gentile section was just as holy as the Jewish sections. God is God of all and not God of a select group. But like the Jews of Jesus' time, some Christians today still think God belongs to us alone and not to others as well.

A final story: A man died and went to heaven and St Peter was showing him around, pointing to different mansions: "Here are the Jews, here the Buddhists, here the Moslems, etc." They came to a large compound with a high wall and inside they could hear singing and laughter. "Who are they?" asked the new arrival. St Peter said, "Hush! They're the Christians; they think they're the only ones here." Yes, maybe we too need a Temple court experience to remind us of the universal love of God and what true worship is.

MEETING JESUS By Sister Caritas

Student Experiences with CRS Rice Bowl

One of our students pur a rice bowl in her family’s restaurant and every day she tells Tom Howard the total raised. Recently, she told Mr. Howard that “we can now purchase a baby scale for Madagascar!” She has already collected over $80.

The Holy Spirit is at work with our students.

Business Share Gift Cards

Thank you to all who purchased gift cards through our small business share. With your help, we sold over 350 gift cards in February, which will help to support our Chinatown community.

Sometimes we meet people in our ordinary lives and they make a deep impression on us and perhaps even change our lives. One such person in my life was Sister Gilmery, one of our School Sisters of Notre Dame. It was a chance meeting, my first year of training as a Sister. We were working at a festival and I was in the room where she and some of the other sisters were working, preparing things to be folded at the yearly three day fundraiser. I only met her briefly, but she became an example and a life-long friend. She was an artistan who, by helping her at later times, taught me many of the skills in art I learned. She loved life. She was creative and enthusiastic and was fun to be with. Later in Chicago, we were part of a group who worked for Justice issues. In her last illness she had both legs amputated but never complained about her condition. She was a loving and caring person. I felt, “I’d like to be like her when I grow up.” For me she was a model and caring, loving friend.

Today’s Gospel tells us a basic New Testament conversion story – a story very appropriate for this point of Lent. “The Samaritan Woman” comes to the well as she usually did. She came in the heat of the day. No one else is coming for their daily water supply. She finds Jesus there. Jesus begins the conversation. This surprises the woman. The conversation continues and goes through the states of conversion. Eventually she asks for the living water Jesus is speaking to her about. Jesus challenges her with the way she has been living her life. He calls her to a better way of living and shows her He knows who she really is. The encounter with Jesus is such that Jesus tells her “I Am He.” I am the Messiah, the one who is to come. It is one of the few places in the Gospel where Jesus directly says this. This meeting changes her. She forgets her water jug and everything and goes to bring her friends from the town to come to Jesus. They come. Jesus stays three days and everyone’s faith in Jesus is found and strengthened. They believe because of their meeting of Jesus, not just because of the woman’s words.

This is often the response when we really meet Jesus in our lives. Our lives are never the same. The woman forgot her jug, the water she came to the well to get. She forgot her shame, guilt and other daily life activities. She was changed and went to share her “good news” with others. To enter into a deep and ongoing relationship with Jesus radically changes us. Things we were worrying about, concerns of our lives, do not matter in the same way. Like the Transfiguration story of last week, one’s focus is changed and “we see only Jesus”. Also, the woman had to go and tell others about Jesus and what she had learned about Him. Pray for this deepening gift of encountering Jesus and knowing Him more completely during this Lent. If you really know Him, tell others about Him with the enthusiasm and excitement of this profound knowledge. Help others to come to Jesus. God will do the rest through you.
