

MORAL LIFE IN CHRIST

Christians are called to imitate Christ in their day to day actions. We are all called to holiness by virtue of our baptism and respond to the Holy Spirit's promptings when we act with justice, love, and mercy. We are called to care for all people and creation, seeing God in the face of our neighbors and in the wonders of his creation.

Source	Links
Vatican	The Catechism of the Catholic Church By merit of being made in God's image, all forms of sin, personal and social, must be uprooted, exposed and systematically addressed. Compendium of Social Doctrine of the Catholic Church A foundational document for why and how the Church is called to serve others.
United States Conference of Catholic Bishops	USCCB Human Life and Dignity Provides the foundation for interpreting both personal and social sin. USCCB Social Justice The American Bishops have contributed much to the Church's universal understanding of social justice. USCCB's Two Feet of Love and Action If we truly desire Christ's peace, humans called to first work for justice. USCCB's Catholic Campaign for Human Development The Bishop's arm to address the root causes of poverty.
Catholic Websites	Catholic Relief Services, CRS Rice Bowl, Educator Guide Meet Thomas Awipo Catholic Relief Services is the USCCB's arm to address global poverty. Ideas such as planting drought-resistant crops, addressing human trafficking and caring for God's creation are an essential part of CRS's mission. Maryknoll Missionary Discipleship Institute -A comprehensive program set up for Catholic middle school children to become missionary disciples. Catholic Climate Covenant Protecting God's creation. Aleteia.org This website has articles about living faith in the world today. Spirit Juice Studios Great inspirational videos. Catholic Saint Help your kids learn about the saints. Virtus Protecting our vulnerable populations. Log on and complete your bulletins. Theology of the Body Pope John Paul II's dynamic work.