CONGRATULATIONS & THANKS

Congratulations to the Archbishop Quigley Council #2428 of the Knights of Columbus as they celebrate their centennial this Saturday at the 5pm mass. We are grateful to their service and faith.

Thanks to all who participated in our Parish Appreciation Gathering. Special thanks to Chris Lowe for leading the planning, Naomi Chan Lowe for being the MC, Joe Delfin for being our IT expert, and Jing Zhang for her assistance, and to Tom Groark for setup and put away the tables and chairs and to all who served food and proclaimed the Good News at the gathering. We are also very grateful to Ricobene's Restaurant for generously donating three large trays of Italian sausage with roasted potatoes & peppers, baked mostaccioli, and mixed dinner salad, and to Jade Yee for donating two large trays of cookies and the drinks.

Like St. Paul, I am constantly amazed by your faith and generosity. You help me to always be grateful. "I give thanks to my God at every remembrance of you, praying with joy in my every prayer for all of you, because of your partnership for the Gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Jesus Christ" (Philippians 1: 3-6)

Words of Wisdom from Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.

As we honor the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. this weekend, I hope the following selected quotes from him might be helpful for each of us as we continue to carry on our mission of love, peace, and justice.

1. Darkness cannot drive out darkness; only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate; only love can do that.
2. Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.
3. We must accept finite disappointment, but never lose infinite hope.
4. Forgiveness is not an occasional act; it is a constant attitude.
5. An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity.
6. Everybody can be great ... because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.
7. Life's most persistent and urgent message is what are you doing for others.
8. We may have all come on different ships, but we're in the same boat now.

"Son of God" by Sr. Caritas

If you are really going to experience an event, you must be able to express what the event was in words. John the Baptist recognizes Jesus and says, "Behold the Lamb of God." That phrase becomes a special way to identify Jesus. John testifies, "I saw the Spirit come down, like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. When you see this, He is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit. He is the Son of God." The expression of this mystery helps us understand how God is revealed to us. In order to be able to recognize

God revealing Himself to you, we have to have an openness of Spirit in our being. This will teach us to know God and how to share Him with others. It is not enough to know God, but we are called to share God with others.

When we open our spirit to God, God comes and fills our lives, our families, institutions and all the times of our lives with His presence in us and with us wherever we may be. When we are open, God teaches us to recognize Him wherever we may be. We recognize His fingerprints in events and places, in others' word and actions as well as in ourselves. We see God with us. We ask God to help us bring Him into other peoples' lives. God always acts if we ask Him to be present and fill our lives with His actions and words. We give God thanks.

MATTY'S ELUSIVE SIGN by Fr. Cuff

Matty knows that as a Catholic he should be winning souls for Christ. In the parish Bible class he's practiced how to share his faith with people and lead them to Christ, but till now he's never done so. So he prays to God to give him a sign to know exactly when to start his mission of introducing others to Christ. One day he's travelling on the subway with his Bible in his handbag. A young man about his own age enters the train and sits next to Matty. He wears a T-shirt with the slogan, "WHOEVER HAS THE MOST TOYS WINS." Matty bends his head and says a little prayer, "Lord, give me a sign when to start." The young man's cell phone rings. A friend wants him to pick him up at church. After arguing with his friend awhile, he says, "All right, but I'm not entering the church. I'll be waiting in the parking lot," and hangs up. Matty bends his head a second time and prays, "Lord, I'm still waiting for a sign!" Finally, the young man turns to Matty and says, "You know, I've got this weird friend who skips work on Sundays so he can go to church. I just don't get it." Matty smiles, closes his eyes again and prays, "Lord, a sign, a sign!" End of story.

In today's Gospel Jesus begins his public life. After living a hidden life for thirty years, how did he know when to leave home and begin his public life? Our first thought is that God his Father spoke to him and communicated to him exactly when to begin, that he got a special green light from God; but today's Gospel suggests Jesus probably arrived at his decision the way most people do, that is, by inferring from the things happening in their lives what God is trying to say to them. Our Gospel reading begins, "When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth making his home in Capernaum by the sea." Jesus hears that John has been arrested. He figures that the renewal movement that John started will now be needing a new leader; he looks around and finds that no one is more suited than himself. That's it. That is all the sign he needs. He says farewell to his family and moves on to meet the challenges of his public life. Unlike Matty in our story, Jesus does not sit and wait for a special supernatural sign from above; rather, he learns to read the "signs of the times," that is, to infer from the goings-on in the world around him what God is saying to him.

What needs do we see in the world around us? What can we do about it, given the personal circumstances in our lives? Are we like Matty waiting for a special sign from God? Well, that sign may never come. Let's ask God today to give us the wisdom to read the "signs of the times" and in our own lives as Jesus did, and to know what God expects of us both as individuals and as a parish. And let us ask for the courage to start doing it, not just praying for a special sign before we take action in our God-given mission in life.

RESPECT LIFE: "When we encounter Christ, experience his love, and deepen our relationship with him, we become more aware of our own worth and that of others. His love for each person is cause for great joy, and growing understanding of this priceless treasure motivates us to share his love with others. Our lives are often changed by the witness of others; so too, others' lives may be changed by our witness and authentic friendship with them." — USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "How to Build a Culture of Life" (respectlife.org/culture-of-life).

Our Prayers – * On this Feast of the Epiphany, may we be given the grace to always see in others the face of Christ our Savior; We pray to the Lord: * For all Christians: May we live out our baptismal call to proclaim the Gospel of God's love and the dignity of every human life; We pray to the Lord:
