Congratulations and Thanks

Congratulations to Josephine Mary Wu, child of Jing Chao Wu and Maureen Vana, who was baptized at St. Barbara Church last Sunday. We rejoice with Josephine and her family and we assure them of our prayers.

Fr. Francis Li
PASTOR

Thanks to Fr. Redempt for his ministry and for sharing his life with our parish in the last nine months. Father is a student at Loyola and just finished his semester. He informed me on Friday, May 6th that he will be traveling in the next few days and then going home to visit his mother for a month. Also, he will be moving in with one of his Redemptorist brother priest for the next school year. This was the hope from the beginning and now they have space for both of them to stay at the same parish. This announcement comes rather suddenly; we don't even have time to properly say thank you and good-bye to Fr. Redempt. I know I personally enjoyed having Fr. Redempt around and we all did. We thank him and I will thank him on behalf of our parish. I also hope he will visit us while he is back for the next school year at Loyola.

Our parish had a spirit-filled weekend celebrating Mother's Day. Our second and third graders did an amazing and inspirational job in leading and participating in our May Crowning at St. Barbara Church last Sunday. At St. Therese Site, we thank you to the many generous donors who contributed towards a Mother's Day Luncheon, and special thanks to our cooks who are fathers in our Church. I want to name them and if I forget any of them, I apologize for it now: Paul Chen, Richard May, Raymond Lin, Armando Flores, Jesus Reyes and Timothy Tie.

Parish Mission Statement

At the core of our being is the question of why: Why do we do what we do? Why do we believe what we believe? For a parish, this question is the foundation of a parish's Mission Statement. We know that we don't have a mission for our parish; but Jesus has a mission for us. How do we articulate this Mission and how do we carry out this mission?

The Mission Statement of a parish is the guidance for any parish to create and foster its activities around. In the last few weeks, our Parish Pastoral Council has been reflecting and working on a new parish Mission Statement. We had a fruitful discussion last Monday and we want to hear your feedback and thoughts on our new parish's Mission Statement.

Below are some of the elements our PPC are considering and discussing for our new parish Mission Statement:

Missionary Disciples: this is our call from Jesus.

Building up the Kingdom of God: this is why we do what we do as Catholics.

Prayer: individual and in community, reflective directed prayer

Evangelization: bring people to Jesus, including our specially entrusted ministry of the Chinese apostolate

Education: Elementary school; also other education opportunities, especially for adults

Social Activities: sports, picnics, concerts, and so forth

Liturgy: specific ministry planning- servers, music, lectors

Compassionate Ministry: outreach to the needy and the poor

Walter Podrazik has been a wonderful writer and facilitator for this process of working on this new parish Mission Statement. Please share your thoughts with him at smtoc@mediawally.com before our next PPC meeting on Monday July 11th, 2022.

FURTHER EVIDENCE OF THE RESURRECTION

Fr. John Cuff

As the close of the Easter season draws near, it's fitting to remember that besides the empty tomb, another "proof" of the Resurrection is that after Christ's glorified body ascends into heaven, He continues to live on in his Church through His Spirit. Here's a story to illustrate how Christ lives on in His believers:

During the Industrial Revolution, a well-known atheist professor would go on lecture tours throughout England speaking on the subject of religion. He once visited a small mining town in the midlands to speak to a group of poor illiterate miners. His lecture was entitled, "How I explain Christ." In his talk he raised many challenges to the Gospel story and concluded by telling his listeners that Christ never existed. At the end of his lecture he said, "And so, my friends, the Bible is nonsense; it is all made up. As for Jesus Christ, why, He is nothing but a myth; and that is how I explain Christ. Are there any questions?"

After a short silence a miner in working clothes stood up and said, "Professor, sir, I'm just a poor uneducated miner. I never went to school and don't even know the meaning of the word 'myth.' But there's one thing I do know. Three years ago I had a miserable home. I neglected my family and spent my money on drink and gambling; I couldn't find a job and there was no peace in my heart. Then a friend took me aside and told me about God and our Savior Jesus; I was baptized and became a believer. Since that day my life has changed completely. Now I have a happy home, I have given up drink and gambling and my former companions. I spend my spare time with my wife and children; we sing, dance, tell stories, and pray together. Now I have peace and joy in my heart. Professor, we've heard how you explain Jesus. But how do you explain me?" I think this story can show how Christ continues to live on in His believers and enables them to change their lives.

The "evidence" for the Resurrection is seen not only in the "empty tomb," but also in the impact of the Resurrection upon Christ's believers. This is why we rejoice at Easter: not only because Jesus has conquered death and has ascended to the right hand of the Father, but because we realize that He is still with us. He lives within us, and is present in His Church through His Spirit, in you and me and in the newly baptized. That is what we celebrate at Easter. Alleluia!

RESPECT LIFE

Quote – "Everyone is in need of reassurance, and if we, who have touched 'the Word of life' (1 Jn 1:1) do not give it, who will? How beautiful it is to be Christians who offer consolation, who bear the burdens of others and who offer encouragement: messengers of life in a time of death!" — Pope Francis, 2020 Easter Vigil Homily © 2020 Libreria Editrice Vaticana.

Our Prayer – May the Holy Spirit strengthen God's people to embrace and protect the precious gift of human life; We pray to the Lord:
