Thanks

Thanks to Fr. Tony Gittins for an inspirational retreat last Saturday on Missionary Discipleship and to all participants. It was one of the most attended retreats we have had. Special thanks to Ms. Oi and Nicole Yong for taking care of our luncheon, to Sr. Monica, Sr. Caritas, Tom Howard, and Jing Zhang for their assistance to make this retreat go smoothly.

Thanks to Jing Zhang for coordinating our Monthly Mandarin Bible Study, which was resumed last month in person and is held on the second Saturday of the month, and to Rouzi Bai for leading the Bible Study. Participants have the option to attend it in person or on zoom now.

Thanks to our 8th Graders for their leadership at our last Sunday's Family Mass. With the guidance of their catechists and families, our young people were amazing.

Thanks to all parents and volunteers who worked so hard for our Easter Bunny Breakfast last Sunday.

Palm Sunday was a busy, but fruitful Sunday.

Easter Hope

Jesus who was crucified has risen! This mystery compels us to hope, to rejoice, and to celebrate. With all that's going on in our human family, this Easter is especially calling us to renew our faith and hope in the risen Lord.

Pope Francis wrote, "The Risen Lord is hope for all who continue to suffer." May the Risen Christ, our peace, bring comfort to those who are suffering from the war in Ukraine and Russia; may the Risen Christ be a source of light to all war refugees; and may the Risen Lord be a source of hope for our human family as we continue to deal with the pandemic.

Where do you find hope in your life now? Where do you see hope in our human family?

Easter calls us to practice life, love and hope. It offers an enduring hope for humanity in the midst of our troubles and problems.

Let's be people of Easter. Happy Easter to you and your loved ones!

Peace, Fr. Francis

EASTER SERMON OF ST. JOHN CHRYSOSTOM

by Fr. John Cuff

Whoever you are. Come. Celebrate this shining happening, this festival of light. You, the devout, God's unshakable lover. You, the servant, brimming with thanks. Come. Walk in the joy of the Lord. And you, the impoverished faster, come for your wages. And you, who began before sunrise, come for your stipend. You, who waited till nine in the morning, this feast is for you. And you, the-not-till-noon-day starter, do not hesitate. You shall not lose a thing. You who began at three in the afternoon, have no scruples. Come. You who arrived just before sunset, forget you were late. Do not be bashful. Our Master is magnanimous and welcomes the very latest with the very first. He will not entertain you less, you of the eleventh hour than you, the dawn toiler. Not at all, to this one he gives and to that one he showers rewards. Whether you were a success or whether you only tried. He will greet you, make much of your effort, extol your intention.

Let everybody therefore crowd into the exhilaration of our Savior. You the first and you the last, equally heaped with blessings. You, rich and poor, celebrate together. You, the careful and the careless, enjoy this day of days. You that kept the fast and you that have broken it. Be happy today. The table is loaded. Feast on it like royalty. The milk fed veal is fat. Let no one grow hungry. And drink, all of you, drink the cup. The vintage is faith. And sumptuously, all of you, feed on his goodness and his sheer abundance. No one need think he is poor for the universal empire emblazoned and wide open for all. No one need mourn uncountable falls, be they over and over. Forgiveness has reared from the tomb. Let no one fear death, for our Savior himself has died and set us free. He confronted death in his own person and blasted it to nothing....

Now hell is a joke. Hell gulped down earth and it gagged on heaven. Hell seized what it saw and was crushed by what it failed to see. Poor death, where is your sting? Poor hell, where is your triumph? Christ steps out of the tomb, and you are reduced to nothing. Christ rises and life is set free. Christ rises and the graves are emptied of death....Christ rises and the angels are wild with delight.

God loves each of us as if there were only one of us.

— Saint Augustine

Matthew Hui: Why I want to become Catholic

From preschool to eighth grade (eleven years), I attended STCCS. These formative years blessed me with lasting friendships, strong relationships with teachers, and vital connections with Church members. I was very involved as an altar server from sixth grade to eighth grade. Upon graduation, I chose Saint Ignatius.

I now realize just how impactful Catholic education is. My choice to become Catholic is a natural outgrowth of a stellar Catholic education. Mass and class helped facilitate connections between God and me.

For example, I made it a habit always to connect through prayer before my exams. Soon this habit became natural. I started to wonder if there were more faith habits I could adopt. I am surrounded by Catholics, school, extracurricular activities, and Church. At first, I never really thought about becoming a Catholic. And yet they possessed habits that I admired.

I was introduced to Catholicism through religion classes at STCCS and theology classes at St. Ignatius. I am inspired to receive constant encouragement at ICP to become Catholic. Looking back, events such as the Seven Church visitations, family masses, altar serving, and service hours all contributed to building my Catholic faith.

I play contact football at ICP. One of my football coaches, Father Brian Taber, S.J., helps me sort out the connection between athletic violence and Catholicism. The idea of hitting and getting hit by other players seems to contradict being a Catholic. Thanks to Fr. Brian, we can talk about this and balance my desire to compete and be a good Catholic.

I am confident that becoming a Catholic will guide my life and life choices. The foundation of faith has been set, but now it's time for me to begin slowly building and growing my connection to the Church and faith community. I have to be disciplined and follow through with it. In conclusion, as children, we are taught at home to love all and treat everyone as equals. Nevertheless, I want to journey deeper with God, exploring what this might mean as a teen and later as an adult. God is calling me to this journey. Thanks for listening.
