

Mother's Day Evangelization Outreach!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Guided by the Holy Spirit, our parish's evangelization team brought roses, cookies and love to all mothers at the Senior Suites Bridgeport (SSB) on Saturday, May 13. The seniors were so joyful and happy to welcome us and you can see their big smiles. It was also a powerful experience for us as we tried to share God's love and joy with the mothers. With God's help we will strive to do more in the future. If you are interested or you feel you are called to serve, please don't hesitate to join our parish evangelization group.

Thanks to Mina Tse who took the lead to organize the gifts and Roberta, Ruth, Sr. Monica, Johann and Roberta's mom Regina for their selfless assistance.

I also want to thank Sylvia Donato, our contact person at the SSB and her son John who brought a big cake to share. I had the chance to meet Sylvia in person to plan for this event and Sylvia struck me as a true disciple, who is always ready to serve God.

Let me conclude by sharing a quote from St. Mother Teresa, "We can do no great things, only small things with great love."

Jing Zhang —Evangelization Lead

Prayer of His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI on World Day of Prayer for the Church in China (May 24)!

This coming Wednesday May 24 is the Annual World Day of Prayer for the Church in China, which was proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI in 2007. In solidarity with the universal Church, I invite you to pray the following prayer this week

Virgin Most Holy, Mother of the Incarnate Word and our Mother, venerated in the Shrine of Sheshan under the title "Help of Christians", the entire Church in China looks to you with devout affection. We come before you today to implore your protection.

Look upon the People of God and, with a mother's care, guide them along the paths of truth and love, so that they may always be a haven of harmonious coexistence among all citizens.

When you obediently said "yes" in the house of Nazareth, you allowed God's eternal Son to take flesh in your virginal womb and thus to begin in history the work of our redemption. You willingly and generously cooperated in that work, allowing the sword of pain to pierce your soul, until the supreme hour of the Cross, when you kept watch on Calvary, standing beside your Son, who died that we might live.

From that moment, you became, in a new way, the Mother of all those who receive your Son Jesus in faith and choose to follow in his footsteps by taking up his Cross. Mother of hope, in the darkness of Holy Saturday you journeyed with unfailing trust towards the dawn of Easter.

Grant that your children may discern at all times, even those that are darkest, the signs of God's loving presence. Our Lady of Sheshan, sustain all those in China, who, amid their daily trials, continue to believe, to hope, to love. May they never be afraid to speak of Jesus to the world, and of the world to Jesus.

In the statue overlooking the Shrine you lift your Son on high, offering him to the world with open arms in a gesture of love. Help Catholics always to be credible witnesses to this love, ever clinging to the rock of Peter on which the Church is built. Mother of China and all Asia, pray for us, now and forever. Amen!

Our Lady of Sheshan, Help of Christians, Pray for us!

Peace, Fr. Francis

MANKIND'S GIANT LEAP by Fr. Cuff

On July 20, 1969, a unique historical event occurred which united all mankind for a few brief moments of genuine togetherness. For the first time, a man, Neil Armstrong, an American astronaut, walked on the moon, an event seen live on TV by millions of people. That evening people interviewed in the U.S. declared, "I'm proud to be an American!" And throughout the world, no matter what nationality, people exclaimed, "I'm proud to be a human being." The next day, newspaper headlines in other countries all over the world were ecstatic: "Great triumph for the human race! Mankind achieves age-old dream to walk on moon! Great victory for humanity! 'One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind!'" Even many leftist newspapers, those always criticizing U.S. imperialism, got caught up in the excitement. The China Daily headlines read, "Great Victory for the People! Long live the people!" For one brief moment, politics and ideologies ceased to exist; everyone felt united as brothers and sisters of one human family. Indeed, the whole world rejoiced that a man had walked on the moon. We all felt part of Neil Armstrong's great victory; his accomplishment belonged to all of us.

The Apostles must have felt the same kind of joy when they saw Jesus ascend into heaven. They were eyewitnesses that it was a living, breathing body that rose into the clouds. The message of the Ascension is simple: that we who are Christ's followers can also look forward to the same glorious conclusion of life, to be swept up, body and soul, into heaven. The Christian religion is the only religion to teach that the human body, indeed a transformed, glorified body, will be part of one's everlasting salvation. At the final judgment we'll not simply be "pure spirits" in heaven. The body, which shared in our earthly struggles during life, will also share in the rewards of eternal life. That's why the Apostles returned to Jerusalem "full of joy." They realized that, for the first time, a member of our human race had gone before them and now lived with God. Indeed, just like going to the moon, it was an age-old dream of mankind to one day be re-united with God, to live with God in heaven. Plus, they realized that they too were somehow part of Christ's victory, just like people of the 20th century considered ourselves part of Neil Armstrong's achievement in reaching the moon. Happy Ascension Sunday!

RESPECT LIFE

Quote – "The Lord says to us, 'Do not fear: I am with you' (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new." — USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Be Not Afraid."

Our Prayer – For all Christians: That our example may give witness to the precious gift of human life in this world and the invitation to eternal life in the next; We pray to the Lord:

SCHOOL NEWS

This week we celebrated the Baccalaureate Mass. During this yearly tradition, the graduating class of 8th graders “pass the torch” to the incoming 8th grade class. As the incoming 8th graders accept candles from the graduating students, they accept the responsibility that comes with being the oldest in our school.

Congratulations to our varsity volleyball team, who made it to the semifinals match! Although the Warriors did not win, they showed great determination and played their best! We are proud of their accomplishments this season!
