Divine Mercy Sunday

*Eternal Father,
I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son,
Our Lord, Jesus Christ,
in atonement for our sins
and those of the whole world.*

Divine Mercy

As we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, we are reminded of God's abundant mercy for us and our constant need for God's mercy. Mercy is one of the greatest attributes of our God. By God's mercy, we are reborn, saved, and forgiven. The word mercy appears many times at our Mass. I invite you pay attention to our prayers for God's mercy particularly during mass.

I hope the following wisdom from St. John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis can help us have a deeper understanding of mercy.

As a gift to humanity, which sometimes seems bewildered and overwhelmed by the power of evil, selfishness, and fear, the Risen Lord offers His love that pardons, reconciles, and reopens hearts to love. It is a love that converts hearts and gives peace. How much the world needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy! Lord, who reveals the Father's love by Your death and Resurrection, we believe in You and confidently repeat to You today: Jesus, I trust in You, have mercy upon us and upon the whole world.

—St. Pope John Paul II, Regina caeli message prepared for Divine Mercy Sunday, April 3, 2005

Mercy is the central nucleus of the Gospel message; it is the very name of God, the Face with which he revealed himself in the Old Covenant and fully in Jesus Christ, the incarnation of creative and redemptive Love. May this merciful love also shine on the face of the Church and show itself through the sacraments, in particular that of Reconciliation, and in works of charity, both communitarian and individual. May all that the Church says and does manifest the mercy God feels for man.

—Pope Benedict XVI, Regina caeli address, March 30, 2008

Mercy cannot become a mere parenthesis in the life of the Church; it constitutes her very existence, through which the profound truths of the Gospel are made manifest and tangible. Everything is revealed in mercy; everything is resolved in the merciful love of the Father.

—Pope Francis, Misericordia et misera, November 20, 2016

Thanks and Congratulations

Thanks to our Liturgy Committee members, liturgical ministers, and all volunteers for planning and executing our liturgical celebrations for the Triduum and Easter. From decoration of our churches to music, from presentation of the oils to washing of the feet, from visitation of the seven churches to the Stations of the Cross, from Easter baskets blessing to Easter Vigil Sacraments of Initiation, from Easter Feast to Egg-hunt and Luncheon, many of you gave hours of your time to make our celebrations uplifting and prayerful and enjoyable.

Congratulations to six of our brothers and sisters who joined our Church on Easter Vigil. Their journey to faith has helped all of us to rejoice and celebrate. May the Risen Lord continue to guide them and bless them as they journey closer to Him.

It was so good to see so many of our parishioners and visitors who joined us in person for the celebration of the Paschal Mystery. I hope and pray that together we will keep the Easter joy and hope going in the days and weeks ahead of us.

This weekend our parish is blessed to host the Board Members of the US-China Catholic Association as they have their in person retreat and meeting. We welcome them and hope they feel at home. Please show our St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta Parish's warm hospitality if you meet them.

May the Risen Lord continue to fill each one of us with Mercy.

Peace, Fr. Francis

By Sr. Caritas

One of the best human experiences in our lives is to have the wonderful surprise of a special friend come and visit us unexpectedly. For me, one of the hardest experiences to live through, is to have someone whom I love, die, unexpectedly.

Our Gospel stories today the apostles were probably rather confused at the time of these stories. They had been with Jesus for several years. They had grown in knowledge of Him, respect for Him, trust of Him and some degree of admiration and love. Now He was dead, and the women had come saying He was alive. Jesus comes into their midst with the greeting of "Peace Be with You." Jesus also gives them the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus comes with gifts of peace and through His death and resurrection, mercy. Thomas was not there. The following week, a similar event happens. This time, Thomas is present. Jesus is willing to accept Thomas' proof that it is really Him. Instead, Thomas makes a profound proclamation of faith. "My Lord and My God."
