Together We Bring Light is the theme for the 2026 Annual Catholic Appeal. Many families in our parish should have received the Annual Catholic Appeal mailing from Cardinal Cupich. On behalf of those served by the ministries of the parishes and schools that receive funding from the Appeal, we thank you for your gifts. Please return your response as soon as possible. The Annual Catholic Appeal offers us an opportunity to join with others and affirm that “together we bring light.” In addition to providing for ministries and services throughout the archdiocese, the Appeal also funds services that are of great help here in our parish.

Our parish’s target for the 2026 Appeal is $24,283. As you know, when contributions exceed the goal. Our parish will receive a rebate from those donated funds. Due to our Lunar New Year celebration on Sunday Feb. 15th, we had to move up ACA one week ahead of the proposed schedule by the Archdiocese. So, our ACA schedule is as follows:

ACA Announcement Weekend: Jan. 31st - Feb. 1st

ACA Commitment Weekend: Feb. 7th– 8th

ACA Follow-Up Weekend: Feb. 14th-15th

As we consider God’s many gifts to us, we should also reflect our gratitude by using and sharing those gifts. Your financial support for the work of our parish, our archdiocese, and the Church throughout the world is one way to express that gratitude. Please pray for the success of this year’s Appeal and please make a donation as you are able to the 2026 Annual Catholic Appeal.

Peace, Fr. Francis

WAITING FOR A SIGN By Fr. John Cuff

The story is told of Martin, who knows that as a Catholic he should be winning souls for Christ. In the parish Bible class he’s practiced how to share his faith with people and lead them to Christ, but till now he’s never done so. So he prays to God to give him a sign to know when and how to start his mission of introducing others to Christ. One day he’s travelling on the subway with his Bible in his handbag. A young man about his own age enters the train and sits next to him, wearing a T-shirt saying, “WHOEVER HAS THE MOST TOYS WINS.” Martin bends his head and returns to his prayer, “Lord, give me a sign when to start.” The young man’s cell phone rings. A friend wants him to pick him up at church. After arguing with his friend awhile, he says, “All right, but I’m not entering the church. I’ll be waiting in the parking lot,” and hangs up. Martin lowers his eyes a second time and prays, “Lord, I’m still waiting for a sign!” Finally, the young man turns to Martin and says, “You know, I’ve got this weird friend who skips work on Sundays so he can go to church. I just don’t get it.” Martin smiles, closes his eyes again, and prays, “Lord, a sign, a sign!” End of story.

In today’s Gospel Jesus begins his public life. After living a hidden life for thirty years, how did he know when to leave home and begin his public life? Our first thought is that God his Father spoke to him to tell him exactly when to begin, that he got a special green light from God; but today’s Gospel suggests Jesus probably arrived at his decision the way most people do, that is, by inferring from the things happening in their lives what God wants to say to them. Today’s Gospel begins, “When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth making his home in Capernaum by the sea.” So Jesus hears that John has been arrested. He figures that the renewal movement that John started now needs a new leader; he looks around and finds that no one is more suited than himself. That’s it. That’s all the sign he needs. He says farewell to his family and sets off to meet the challenges of his public life. Unlike Martin in the story, Jesus doesn’t sit and wait for a special supernatural sign from above; rather, he learns to read the “signs of the times,” that is, to infer from the goings-on in the world around him what God wants of him.

What needs do we see in the world around us? What can we do about it, given the personal circumstances in our lives? Are we like Martin waiting for a special sign from God? Well, that sign may never come. Let’s ask God today to give us the wisdom to read the “signs of the times” and in our own lives as Jesus did, and to know what God expects of us both as individuals and as a Parish. And let us ask for the courage to start doing it, and not just wait for a special sign before taking action in our God-given mission in life.

"This annual collection exemplifies the spiritual journey of Pope Leo XIV, who was born in Chicago but spent most of his ministry serving the poor in Peru," said Bishop Edgar M. da Cunha, SDV, of the Diocese of Fall River, and chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America, which oversees this annual collection and the grants it funds.

Social Studies Projects

Our 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students presented their Social Studies projects last week. Each grade researched a different topic:

- States in the United States
- The First Amendment
- The Triangular Trade

They all did a great job with their research and presenting to other students and teachers!
