

The Spirit Makes Us Alive!

shutterstock.com · 1913691931

On this Memorial Day weekend, we also celebrate Pentecost, the birth of our Church. The coming of the promised Spirit of Truth fills our lives with many gifts and reminds us of our unity in diversity. "As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ."

Pope Francis says, "Every one of us is required to respond to three fundamental questions, posed in this way by St. Paul VI: 'Do you believe what you are proclaiming? Do you live what you believe? Do you preach what you live?'"

The Spirit can help us to change our lives. We all know that we are not perfect yet and we need conversions. Oftentimes, we pray to God to help us; we also make the efforts we can; and we also accompany others to transformation.

The Spirit can help us to witness for Christ. Our credible witness is expressions of our strong faith. When one encounters Christ, one's life is transformed and therefore empowered to witness for God to others.

The Spirit can help us to evangelize. Pope Francis said during his weekly general audience in St. Peter's Square March 22 that "The Holy Spirit is the protagonist of evangelization. Without the Holy Spirit we will only be advertising the church." What makes our proclamation powerful is the Spirit who can help us to live according to what we believe.

~ Peace, Fr. Francis

THANKS & CONGRATULATIONS

Thanks to all volunteers, sponsors and donors to our Carnival. Special thanks to Denise Holland and Wendy Kaput for chairing the Carnival, to Jing Zhang for stepping up to volunteer and recruiting many volunteers within a short time request, and to Tom Groark and his helpers for setting up and cleaning up the tents, tables and chairs. Many of our volunteers worked for all four days. I was happy to be part of it and to see people from our parish and neighborhood coming together to make the Carnival a success. We thank God above all for the beautiful weather and for God's grace uniting and empowering us for a good cause. I hope we will be able to provide a financial report in next weekend's bulletin.

Thanks to our 8th Graders for leading us at last Sunday's May Crowning at St. Therese. It was well done.

Congratulations to our 1st communicants, who celebrated their First Communion last Sunday:

Victoria Amalbert
Chloe Chen
Mabel Ho
Helen Lee

Gianfranco Mejia
Giavanna Mora
Luca Sciammarella
Liv Sandoval

Congratulations to the Class of 2023 at St. Therese School. Their graduation ceremony was last Sunday at St. Therese. We are proud of them and we wish them continued success in their respective High Schools.

A note from Sabina Lilly—Music Director

In November of 2022 I began experiencing frequent and severe pain in an area by my right vocal cord and in the surrounding structures. A throat scope revealed damage to my vocal folds. After working with a team of Western medical specialists, voice therapists, bodywork experts, and with alternative practitioners, we have determined that the best course of action to alleviate pain and to prevent further damage is for me to control how and when I use my singing and speaking voice.

Unfortunately, the combination of teaching classroom music and leading the Parish music program has proven too physically taxing on my voice. I do not see a solution where I can perform the job of Music Director/Music Teacher as expected and have a healthy and fruitful future as a singer. I regret to inform you that I will not be returning to St. Therese School next year, and that I will be transitioning out of the Music Director role in the months to come.

It has been a great privilege to be an integral part of the St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta Parish community for the past year and a half. While I am saddened by these events, I am clear about the path forward. I need to get and stay healthy, and the Parish needs a musician who can give 100% to the demands of the job. In the future I hope to serve the Parish in a way that is aligned with my health, and in the best interest of all involved.

With sincere gratitude, Sabina L. Lilly

Quote – “Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God’s creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.” — USCCB Respect Life flyer quoting Pope Francis’ “Day for Life Greeting”

OUR GOD-GIVEN GIFTS by Fr. Cuff

There’s an old story about a certain Fr. Stan whose day off was Friday. One Friday during Lent he decided to go hunting. In tramping through the woods, he encountered a bear. They both saw each other at the same time. The bear began coming toward him. Fr. Stan lifted his gun and took aim. However, his gun jammed and before he knew it the bear was on top of him. He prayed: “God, save me! Make this bear a Christian. Better yet, make him a Catholic. Surely a good Catholic bear wouldn’t eat meat on a Lenten Friday.” Suddenly the bear fell to its knees and started praying. The priest was so grateful until he heard what the bear was saying as he prayed: “Bless us Oh Lord and these thy gifts...”

This story is a round-about way to introduce today’s Pentecostal theme of “God-given gifts.” Indeed, the greatest gift that God gives His Church is the Holy Spirit. On Pentecost we also celebrate the many gifts that the Holy Spirit Himself brings with Him. They are divided into two kinds, the seven-fold gifts and the “charismatic gifts.” First of all, the seven-fold gifts of the Spirit help a person to grow in personal holiness; they make us more sensitive to receive and carry out his inspirations. These are Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding, Counsel, Courage, Piety, and Fear of the Lord, the ones received in the Sacrament of Confirmation. They help us to appreciate our faith more deeply and to love God more ardently.

The second kind of gifts of the Spirit are the so-called “charismatic gifts.” These are not given for ourselves personally; rather they are given to help “build up the Church,” especially one’s parish. The more extraordinary of these are prophecy, healing, and the gift of “tongues.” Then there are the more common forms of service, like financial and maintenance expertise, plus teaching others the faith, cheering the sick, and sharing one’s talents for the enrichment of the parish. And let’s not forget the ordinary, unnoticed, behind-the-scenes gifts, which are essential to the running of a parish. St. Paul tells us we must never despise these lesser gifts. Without these lesser ministries, surely the greater ministries might never happen. What is your gift? When people are involved in their parish, you can be sure the Holy Spirit is present and at work in them. Happy Pentecost!

PENTECOST by Sr. Caritas

Today we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. It is one of the great feasts of the Church year. It is as important as Christmas or Easter. Pentecost celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles as they prayed in the “Upper Room” in Jerusalem waiting for the Spirit’s coming. As the Gospel tells us, they were there, fearful that they too would be taken by the Jews and killed as Jesus was. Jesus had told the Apostles to go to Jerusalem to the room and pray and wait “for the coming of the Spirit.” They were praying and hiding.

When the Holy Spirit comes to them, we immediately see two gifts the Spirit gives. Peter and the other apostles stop hiding and are no longer afraid. The second gift is Peter preaches to the people and three thousand people are baptized and added to the community of believers that day. With the “fullness of the Spirit” filling their lives, the Apostles begin their public ministry.

Prayer for Memorial Day

God of power and mercy,

you destroy war and put down earthly pride.

Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters.

Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord.

R/. Amen

Class of 2023

Van Gogh School Photographers Inc., Barrington, Illinois

Our 1st through 5th grade students honored our fallen soldiers at the Chinese American Veterans Memorial wreath laying ceremony. We remember all those who fought and continue to fight for our country. Thank you to all veterans for your service to our country.
