Congratulations and Thanks

Congratulations to the Class of 2022 of St. Therese Chinese Catholic School. It was wonderful to have their families, relatives and friends joining us at the 9:30am mass last Sunday to celebrate their achievements and to pray for their next chapter of high school studies. We are so proud of them and wish them continued success.

Thanks to all who attended our first gathering of the Living Well Series. It was a wonderful turnout. Special thanks to our Task Force Members for their hard work on planning and executing this event: Chris and Frances Lee, Katharina Atmadja, Walter Podrazik, Elizabeth Pienta, Francisco Rodriguez, Kimberly Casey, Nicole Yong and Debbe Oi. I was so inspired by how well we worked together for this amazing event. Special thanks also to Chris and Frances Lee and a generous anonymous donor for sponsoring our speaker, to Katharina, Elizabeth and Wally for donating snacks, drinks, and utensils, setting up and cleaning up and taking photos; to Tom Howard for taking care of the projector and IT needs, and to the Andriacchis for babysitting of children. Our next gathering will be on Friday September 23rd.

Laudato si' Week 2022: May 22-29

Pope Francis published the encyclical Laudato Si in 2015 to call us to care for our common home---the earth. This year from May 22 to 29, on the occasion of its anniversary, the Church invites us to celebrate the Laudato si' Week. This celebration calls us to ecological conversion. Each of us can do something in our daily life to care for our earth. Let's renew our awareness of the needs for promoting the principle of the integral ecology and take actions to respond.

I found this resource helpful. Please see the link: About - Laudato Si' Action Platform \(laudatosi-actionplatform.org\), where it says that the Creator of all calls us to practice a new way of living, one that is "good, true and beautiful." (LS 205) We commit to taking action together because it is "urgent and necessary." (LS 57). For concrete actions, please see the website.

Praying for Victims of the Texas Gun Shooting

How can an 18-year-old shoot his grandma? How can an 18 year-old kill 19 children and two teachers? Our hearts have been extremely troubled and saddened once more this past week. The shooting at Robb Elementary School, Texas compels our human family to pray and take action. Let's pray for all victims of the shooting and their families and also for elected officials and all leaders to take effective actions to end all kinds of violence in our society.

Peace, Fr. Francis

School News

Last week we celebrated the Class of 2022 with a Baccalaureate Mass and Commencement. During the Baccalaureate Mass and the candle and rose ceremony, the graduating 8th graders passed a candle on to the 7th graders, signifying their role as leaders of St. Therese School. In exchange, the 7th graders gave the 8th graders a rose to honor their time at St. Therese. Congratulations to the Class of 2022!

OUR HIGH PRIEST'S ASCENSION Fr. John Cuff

Little Amy urgently needed a blood transfusion. Her kid brother, Jimmy, had had the same disease two years ago and had recovered. Since her best chance of recovery was a transfusion from someone who had recovered from the disease, Jimmy was identified as the ideal donor. "Would you be willing to give your blood to Amy?" asked the doctor. Jimmy hesitated; his lower lip began to tremble. At last he smiled and said, "Sure, for my sister." Soon the two kids were wheeled into the hospital room. Neither spoke, but when their eyes met, Jimmy grinned. As the nurse inserted the needle into his arm, Jimmy's smile faded. He watched his blood flow through the tube. When the ordeal was over, Jimmy's shaky voice broke the silence. "Doctor, when do I die?" It was only then the doctor realized why he had hesitated, why his lip had trembled. Jimmy thought giving his blood to his sister meant giving his life so she might live. Fortunately, he didn't have to die.

Blood was central to temple worship in Jerusalem. Much of temple priest's work involved slaughtering animals and shedding their blood to atone for sin, then sprinkling the people with the blood to cleanse them from guilt. As the author of Hebrews explains, "Under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness of sins." Thus, in the people's dealings with God, the most important personage was not the king, nor the prophet, but the priest who offered the sacrifice of blood that took away the sins of the people and restored them to God's favor. Although He did not identify Himself nor His apostles as priests, by the time Hebrews was written, Jewish Christians had come to see Jesus as the eternal High Priest par excellence, and compared to Jesus' priesthood, the temple priesthood was only a shadow.

The Ascension of Christ into heaven is therefore also compared to the temple priest going up the steps into the sanctuary to offer sacrifice. But the sacrifice of Christ is infinitely superior. The temple priest offered the blood of lambs, but the blood of the Son of God is infinitely more powerful than the blood of lambs to take away our sins. Today, as we celebrate the ascension of the Lord into heaven, let us not mourn the disappearance of Christ. Rather let us celebrate his going up into the eternal holy place, into God's very presence, to make atonement for us.

FUN DAY!

After a long school year, our students celebrated with our first Fun Day! Thank you to all the parents, teachers, and staff who helped make this event special and possible!

Statement of Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, archbishop of Chicago, on the massacre of children in Uvalde, Texas

Today, a gunman walked into a grade school in Uvalde, TX, and slaughtered at least 18 children. The shooter allegedly killed his grandmother before driving to the school. Authorities say the suspect is dead. He was 18 years old.

The parents were told, "Please do not pick up students at this time. Students need to be accounted for before they are released to your care." Imagine being a parent with a child in that school. Imagine having to bury them.

Parents now face a delay in identifying the victims—such was the extent of the damage done to these children's bodies by the killer's weapons.

As I reflect on this latest American massacre, I keep returning to the questions: Who are we as a nation if we do not act to protect our children? What do we love more: our instruments of death or our future?

The Second Amendment did not come down from Sinai. The right to bear arms will never be more important than human life. Our children have rights too. And our elected officials have a moral duty to protect them.

St. Vincent DePaul News

St. Vincent DePaul delivered all the food from our food drive to Benton House last Saturday. Special thanks to Jane Krzyzanski for her help. Benton House was very grateful for the help replenishing their shelves after the holidays. We also gave out 3 of the bicycles last week and have 2 left. Contact George by text at 773-592-7036 to arrange to pick a bicycle.

Our next venture will be the trailer bundle drive June 11th and 12th in the St. Barbara parking lot. For the trailer we take everything except mattresses and baby furniture. This is a great way to get rid of your items after you do spring cleaning.

The Holy Name meets the second Friday of each month. We have a fantastic dinner prepared by our own Chef Jeff. Our last meeting, we had lasagna, garlic bread and salad. We then move on to our meeting where we discuss the business to be done in our Parish and, the community. All men from Bridgeport and Chinatown and beyond are welcome come down to a meeting and check us out! The next meeting is June 10th.

RESPECT LIFE

Quote – "The Lord says to us, 'Do not fear: I am with you' (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new." — USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Be Not Afraid." NABRE © 2010 CCD. Used with permission.

Our Prayer – For all Christians: That our example may give witness to the precious gift of human life in this world and the invitation to eternal life in the next; We pray to the Lord:
