Ways to Give

Most of us make our parish offerings and donations by giving cash or writing a check. However, there are other ways of giving, and some may generate more tax benefits for you.

1. Give online (GiveCentral & Paypal)
2. Give stock or mutual fund holdings
3. Give appreciated real estate held for more than one year
4. Sign up for Employers' Matching Gifts
5. Establish a Donor-Advised Fund
6. Make Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD) from a traditional IRA account
7. Give Life Insurance
8. Plan for Gifts and Bequests

Thank you for your continued support of SMTCP!

REJECTION AT NAZARETH by Fr. John Cuff

One of the first native bishops in Nigeria returned to his hometown for a reception soon after he was made bishop. His townspeople, most of whom had only a faint idea of Christian faith or the office of bishop, gave him a big reception. In the welcome speech, the people expressed how happy they were that one of their own sons had risen to the exalted position of those who had direct access to God. They even promised him they would all embrace Christianity if he, as bishop, would use the power of his office to suppress one of the Ten Commandments for them. Before they could say which Commandment they had in mind, the young bishop shocked them when he said that the Ten Commandments are of divine, not human origin, and so are unchangeable. The celebratory mood suddenly turned into disappointment and the bishop had to make a hasty departure from his own townspeople.

In today's Gospel Jesus has a similar experience. Like the Nigerian bishop, Jesus was coming home soon after his baptism in the Jordan and after working his first miracle at Cana. And like the bishop, Jesus' townspeople received him at first with amazement and praise: "All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth." And again, like the bishop, Jesus was expected to use his powers and grant some special favor for his townspeople. After all, they were his own people, right? Furthermore, as with the bishop, when Jesus told them the hard truth that God has no favorites but relates to all mankind by the same standards, they turned against him in disappointment and ran him out of town. Jesus anticipated their disappointment with him because he understood himself to be engaged in the prophetic ministry. In the Bible, a prophet is not simply one who foretells the future. He's one who speaks for God, God's own spokesperson. The prophet declares "Thus says the Lord...." He expresses the word of God. Whether this word is happily received by the people or not is not his primary concern. He simply tells the bitter truth and this is what gets him into trouble.

So what's the truth Jesus told his townspeople in today's Gospel that got him into trouble? The universality of God's grace. The people of Nazareth, like most of the Jews of Jesus' time, believed in a God whose beneficence was limited to the "chosen" people. But Jesus said that God is equally available to all, as long as they approach Him with faith and trust. Thus the greatest of all virtues is universal and unconditional love, the theme of today's second reading; and the beginning of such love is the recognition that there's only one chosen people of God, only one chosen race: the human race.

2022 Annual Catholic Appeal (Announcement Weekend Feb. 12-13; Commitment Weekend Feb. 19-20 and Follow-Up Weekend Feb. 26-27):

Making all things new ... God's promise and our responsibility. Many families in our parish will be receiving the Annual Catholic Appeal mailing from Cardinal Cupich. On behalf of those served by the ministries, parishes, and schools that receive funding from the Appeal, we thank you for your gifts. Please return your response as soon as possible.

The Annual Catholic Appeal offers a wonderful opportunity to answer the call "Making all things new ... God's promise and our responsibility."

In addition to providing for ministries and services throughout the archdiocese, the Appeal also funds services that are of great help here in our parish.

As we contemplate God's many gifts to us, we should also reflect on our gratitude. Your financial support for the work of our parish, our archdiocese, and the Church throughout the world is one way to express this gratitude. Please give what you can to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal. Our Parish's goal for the 2022 Appeal is $20,113. As you know, when contributions exceed the goal, our parish will receive a rebate from those donated funds.

PEACE PROJECT

"Live Peace, Teach Peace"

The Peace Project is making progress! Thanks to those who are interested in helping with this necessary project in this restless time. My plan is to have at least three training sessions for the volunteers in order to make them feel comfortable taking part in this project. So far seven people have tentatively committed to it.

Training Sessions Dates: Feb 20, 27, and March 6.

Time: still being negotiated

Place: St. Therese Church community room.

If you are interested, please contact Sr. Monica's email: srmonica@stmothertereseparish.org or office phone number: 312-842-7979, 312-842-6777.

Our Prayer – For the times we are afraid to welcome life: May the Lord fill our hearts with confidence in His loving care and provide for every need; We pray to the Lord: Lord, Hear our Prayer.

BUILDING THE NEW REALITY #21

House of the Lord

by St. Therese Chinese Catholic School Student

I am in awe of the everlasting power of love. This week Tom Howard shares a story from one of his students:

Here is how I once dealt with fear. A few years ago (before covid) I went to summer school in person. I didn't have a phone yet.

My parents dropped me off late for summer school. I kept ringing the bell and waited, but no one opened the school door. I wondered if the school was canceled. I looked but did not see any other students. Next, I decided to wait for my parents. As I sat there, one guy gave me a strange look. Maybe he thought I was homeless, out on the street. I didn't feel safe. The thought of going to my Grandparent's restaurant entered my mind, but I had no clue how to walk there. Then I thought of the church. I knew the way to get there and I knew that Father Li lived there, so I crossed over to Alexander Ave.

I was so happy when Father opened the door. Father Li had some people in the community room who took care of me. They were so nice. One very nice lady had a very small dog named Mimi. I enjoyed playing with Mimi and talking to the lady. The time flew by. Soon it was time for my parents to pick me up. The nice lady walked me back to the school. My dad heard what happened, he was shocked.

I'm very thankful for the staff at the church. Thanks to them, nothing bad happened to me. It was scary when people were looking at me weirdly and that guy who asked if I was homeless because I was scared someone would try to kidnap me. But in the end, I was safe in the House of the Lord.
