THE TRINITY'S RING OF TRUTH

By Fr. John Cuff

When Muslims and Christians engage in religious dialogue, one of the first sticking points that arises is the concept of the Holy Trinity, the Mystery Catholics celebrate today. Muslims, like Jews and Christians, believe in one all-powerful and transcendent God, whom Muslims call Allah. Their Allah resembles our Yahweh whom we adore in the Old Testament, which is not surprising, since Mohammed, the founder of Islam, was born in the Middle East in the late sixth century and raised among Jews and Christians. Unfortunately, at that time Christian churches in the Middle East were often mired in internal theological controversies, which sometimes resulted in scandalous disagreements and divisions among Christians.

This was the environment in which Mohammed conceived and popularized his simplified, non-Christian idea of God. He rejected what Jesus revealed of the Trinity, namely, that God is three divine persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—yet having one divine nature. Mohammed's rejection of the Trinity thus limits any scope for meaningful dialogue with Muslims concerning the concept of God, and effectively canceled out our New Testament, rejected by both Muslims and Jews. The bottom line, then, is that of all the world's monotheistic religions, it is only Christianity that believes in the Trinity; the doctrine of the Trinity is unique to us.

Truly the Trinity is a profound Mystery: How can God be both one and three? How can Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be fully God, while at the same time be three distinct persons? We simply cannot wrap our minds around this notion of a Triune God. However, as some Christian writers have commented, this very fact makes the doctrine of the Trinity "ring true." They say it suggests that no merely human mind could have come up with the idea. It likewise suggests that God the Creator of the universe exists in a way that we, mere creatures, will never be able to fully comprehend—and that makes perfect sense. God should exceed our ability to understand Him. If He didn't, commentators say, He wouldn't be much of a God. On today's Feast of the Trinity, let's be grateful that God, as mysterious as He is, lets us know Who He is personally, namely, as three divine Persons in one God.

Generation to Generation: Answer the Call

THANKS to everyone who has made a generous pledge to our "Generation to Generation" campaign. We have raised over 83% of our parish's challenge goal of $830,000 and need more pledges to reach our target.

Will you help our parish to reach our challenge goal?

Campaign materials and pledge cards are available at the entrance of the church. Please return completed pledge cards to the collection baskets.

I invite you all to continue to pray for the success of this campaign.

Campaign Prayer:

God of abundant and generous mercy, we gratefully acknowledge the many gifts you have given us across the years from the sacrifice of generations before us.

And so, we confidently trust that you will walk with us into the future.

We echo the words of the Blessed Virgin Mary: truly, your mercy is from generation to generation.

Help us now to respond generously to your gifts, as we support our Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago and work to bring faith forward for the generations that follow us.

By your grace and help, let our gifts be a blessing for our children, our grandchildren, and those who follow them.

Through Christ our Lord.

Our parish's Generation to Generation campaign ends at the end of June, so you still have time to participate! Thank you to all who have answered the call!

THANK YOU TO OUR NEW DONORS

REFLECTIONS FOR THE FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

"But that is impossible, my dear child." There is a very old and much-repeated story about St. Augustine, one of the intellectual giants of the Church. He was walking by the seashore one day, attempting to conceive of an intelligible explanation for the mystery of the Trinity. As he walked along, he saw a small boy on the beach, pouring seawater from a shell into a small hole in the sand. "What are you doing, my child?" asked Augustine. "I am trying to empty the sea into this hole," the boy answered with an innocent smile. "But that is impossible, my dear child," said Augustine. The boy stood up, looked straight into the eyes of Augustine and replied, "What you are trying to do - comprehend the immensity of God with your small head - is even more impossible." Then he vanished. The child was an angel sent by God to teach Augustine a lesson. Later, Augustine wrote: "You see the Trinity if you see love." According to him, the Father is the lover, the Son is the loved one and the Holy Spirit is the personification of the very act of loving. This means that we can understand something of the Mystery of the Holy Trinity more readily with the heart than with our feeble mind. Evagrius of Pontus, a Greek monk of the 4th century who came from what is now Turkey in Asia and later lived out his vocation in Egypt, said: "God cannot be grasped by the mind. If God could be grasped, God would not be God." (<http://frtonyshomilies.com/>)

Life messages: 1) We need to respect ourselves and respect others.

Our conviction of the presence of the Triune God within us should help us to esteem ourselves as God's holy dwelling place, to behave well in His holy presence, and to lead purer and holier lives, practicing acts of justice and charity. This Triune Presence should also encourage us to respect and honor others as "Temples of the Holy Spirit."

2) We need to be aware of God as the Source of our strength and courage. The awareness and conviction of the presence of God within us, gives us the strength to face the manifold problems of life with Christian courage. It was such a conviction that prompted the early Christian martyrs, when taken to their execution, to shout the heroic prayer of Faith from the Psalms: "The Lord of might is with us, our God is within us, and the God of Jacob is our helper" (Psalm 46).

3) We need to see the Trinity as the model for our Christian families:

We are created in love to be a community of loving persons, just as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are united in love. From the day of our Baptism, we have belonged to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. How privileged we are to grow up in such a beautiful Family! Hence, let us turn to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit in prayer every day. We belong to the Family of the Triune God. The love, unity and joy in the relationship among the Father, Son and Holy Spirit should be the supreme model of our relationships within our Christian families. Our families become truly Christian when we live in a relationship of love with God and with others.

4) We are called to become more like the Triune God through all our relationships.

We are made in God's image and likeness. Just as God is God only in a Trinitarian relationship, so we can be fully human only as one member of a relationship of three partners. The self needs to be in a horizontal relationship with all other people and in a vertical relationship with God. In that way, our life becomes Trinitarian like that of God. Modern society follows the so-called "I-and-I" principle of unbridled individualism and the resulting consumerism. But the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity challenges us to adopt an "I-and-God-and-neighbor" principle: "I am a Christian insofar as I live in a relationship of love with God and other people." Like God the Father, we are called upon to be productive and creative persons by contributing to the building up of the fabric of our family, our Church, our community and our nation. Like God the Son, we are called upon to reconcile, to be peacemakers, to put back together that which has been broken, to restore what has been shattered. Like God the Holy Spirit, it is our task to uncover and teach truth and to dispel ignorance. (Trinitarian spirituality: "The doctrine of the Trinity affirms that it belongs to God's very Nature to be committed to humanity and its history, that God's Covenant with us is irrevocable, that God's face is immutably turned toward us in love, that God's presence to us is utterly reliable and constant.... Trinitarian spirituality is one of solidarity between and among persons. It is a way of living the Gospel attentive to the requirements of justice, understood as rightly ordered relationships between and among persons." Dictionary of Spirituality)

St. Francis Xavier's favorite prayer was: "Most Holy Trinity, who live in me, I praise You, I worship You, I adore You and I love You." Let the Son lead us to the Father through the Spirit, to live with the Triune God forever and ever. Amen. (Fr. Antony Kadavil)

St. Therese School News

Volunteering

Last weekend, our students and parents volunteered with the Sisters of the Missionaries of Charity at their soup kitchen. They spent time together in prayer and prepared and served a meal to those in need.

Fun Day

Our students had their annual Fun Day this week. Our younger students enjoyed a friendly petting zoo, while our older students had a day filled with fun activities at McGuane Park!
