Thanks

Thank you to everyone who attended our latest Living Well Speaker Series talk, "Family Spirituality: How Families Thrive in God's Love," led by Dr. Christina Zaker. The presentation was both informative and interactive, leaving participants inspired to renew their love for their families and God.

Special thanks to the members of the Living Well Speaker Committee for organizing the event and assisting with hospitality.

FOLLOW-UP WEEKEND

Generation to Generation: Answer the Call

Thank you to everyone who has made a generous pledge to our "Generation to Generation" campaign. As of today, we have raised 79% of our parish challenge goal of $830,000 and need $175,725 more to reach our target.

Will you help our parish to reach our challenge goal?

Bellow are a couple of testimonials of why families support this campaign:

I am a third generation Catholic. Both the St. Therese Church and School were instrumental in shaping my life. The selfless actions and devotions of nuns and priests broadened my belief of cultivating a nurturing Catholic environment for others. Their actions inspired me to give so the next generation can experience what I was fortunate to receive.

---Paul Lau

St. Barbara Church has been my spiritual home for over 20 years. I would like to share my blessings with the next generation by doing my part to ensure our beautiful church remains strong.

----Anonymous

Campaign materials and pledge cards are available at the entrance of the church. Please return completed pledge cards to the collection baskets.

Every gift, regardless of size, is deeply appreciated. Please remember that we do not ask for equal gifts, but for equal sacrifice.

I invite you all to pray for the success of this campaign.

Campaign Prayer:

God of abundant and generous mercy, we gratefully acknowledge the many gifts you have given us across the years from the sacrifice of generations before us.

And so, we confidently trust that you will walk with us into the future.

We echo the words of the Blessed Virgin Mary:

truly, your mercy is from generation to generation.

Help us now to respond generously to your gifts, as we support our Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago and work to bring faith forward for the generations that follow us.

By your grace and help, let our gifts be a blessing for our children, our grandchildren, and those who follow them.

Through Christ our Lord.

Peace, Fr. Francis

Annual Second Collection on Mother's Day Weekend to Support the Ministry of the Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago

Over 60,000 moms in need come to us each year. At Catholic Charities we provide vital services like food, housing, and diapers for families throughout Cook and Lake counties. Offering support at a critical moment often changes the course of a mom's life. Your gift this Mother's Day gives hope to moms who need it most.

Read about Brianna,* a mother who found support through Catholic Charities- Brianna, a 25-year-old single mom, spent the first two years of her daughter's life staying with friends, worrying every day they would be put out on the streets. Her two jobs could not cover all their expenses. Within a month of connecting with Catholic Charities, Brianna and her daughter had an apartment of their own, with the program paying a portion of her rent so she could start saving money, earn her GED, and get a better-paying job.

"It takes a strong individual to get through that. But I always had faith."

Please support the Second Collection on Mother's Day, May 10 or anytime at catholiccharities.net/mothers

THE APOSTLES' NEEDLESS FEAR

By Fr. John Cuff

Five-year old Jimmy is in the kitchen as his mom prepares dinner. She asks him to go to the basement and fetch her a can of tomato soup. "It's dark in there and I'm scared," replies Jimmy. Mom tries her best to convince him that it's safe to go alone into the basement but without much success. Finally she says "It's OK, Jimmy, Jesus will be in there with you." Jimmy walks hesitantly to the door and slowly opens it. He peeps inside, sees that it's really dark down there, and starts to close the door. Then he gets an idea. He again opens the basement door a little and shouts, "Jesus, if you're down there, would you please hand me up a can of tomato soup?"

Jimmy's fear is something like that of the Apostles. As the time draws near for Jesus to leave them, they're afraid to face the world alone. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus does pretty much what Jimmy's mother tries to do, namely, to convince them that there is no need to be afraid, that He'll still be with them, even when they'll no longer see Him. "Do not let your hearts be troubled," He says. He asks them to master their fears, and the reason that He gives is both simple and profound: "You believe in God, believe also in me." Applying this to everyday living, it's easy to believe in God, a spiritual being Whom we cannot see. The further challenge is to believe that God is present in ordinary, flesh-and-blood human beings whom we know all too well, ordinary human beings who are often lacking in knowledge, in love, and in moral strength. To believe in God is the easy part; however, to believe, not only in Himself, but also in our frail fellow human beings is the hard part. In other words, the disciples see God in Jesus. So long as He's around, there's no fear. But they don't always see God in their all-too-human fellow disciples. The disciples put Jesus on a different level from themselves. But Jesus is trying to convince them that if God could work through Him, Jesus, then God could as well work through other human beings. Thus God can use them and work through them also, in spite of their human deficiencies: "I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father." God's always with us, so we shouldn't let our hearts be troubled. We believe in God, so let us now also believe in each other, men and women of faith, through whom He continues to work.
