

OUR EASTER DEBT OF GRATITUDE

As part of the celebratory mood of Easter, here are a couple of humorous anecdotes. An old pastor finished his Easter morning homily by announcing, "Brothers and sisters in Christ, as I'll probably not see many of you till next Easter, may I take this opportunity to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!" The other story tells of a man who criticized his pastor: "I've been coming to this church for three years now and each time the homily is always about the same topic! Doesn't Father have anything else to talk about?" Yes, this man had been attending Mass for three years alright; but he only came on Easter Sunday, and so only heard a homily on Jesus' resurrection. On a more serious note, however, both stories raise a disturbing question: Why do otherwise good Catholics miss coming to Sunday Mass all year long, as the third commandment commands?

The Paschal Mystery of Jesus' Death and Resurrection that we celebrate today records His last words on the cross as "It is finished," which is translated from the Greek word "tetelestai." What does "tetelestai" refer to? A few years ago archaeologists in the Holy Land dug up a tax collector's office which was almost intact, including all the tax records. There were two stacks of tax records; one had the word "tetelestai" on the top, translated as "paid in full." These people no longer owed anything! And so, when Jesus said, "It is finished," what is finished? It's the debt we owe God by our sins that's been paid in full. Jesus often spoke of sin as debt, and forgiveness as a cancellation of debt. He told the parable of the unforgiving servant in terms of debt, and taught us to say, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors." He clearly used the language of commerce to describe our spiritual relationship with God and with our neighbor. So, on the cross, when He says "tetelestai," "paid in full," our sins are completely forgiven. Our debt is finished.

Today on Easter Sunday how do we respond? What do we have to do? All we have to do is say, "Amen...so be it," and to believe these words apply to us personally, no matter how great our sin. Our debt has been paid in full and cancelled, no matter how huge the amount. All we have to do is to say "Thank you, Jesus" and show it all our lives. That's why we go to church every Sunday, to offer the Eucharist, which means "thanksgiving," and that's why we avoid sin. If Jesus has paid all the debt that we owe to God, we must ensure that we don't accumulate more debt by the sin of missing Mass.

Let's make every Sunday an Easter Sunday!

~Fr. John Cuff

PASCHAL JOY

After the Lenten season of penance and sacrifice, we are ready to embrace and celebrate the Easter life and joy. The proclamation of Easter reminds us, "Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King, let all corners of the earth be glad, knowing an end to gloom and darkness."

We know what "gloom and darkness" look like in our world. Easter calls us to renew our faith in Christ, the light of the World. At the heart of Easter is about love and joy.

The Easter Vigil is the "Mother of All Vigils" and Easter Sunday is the greatest of all Sundays. The season of Easter is the most important of all liturgical times, which Catholics celebrate as the Lord's resurrection from the dead, culminating in his Ascension to the Father and sending of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. The octave of Easter comprises the eight days which stretch from the first to the second Sunday. It is a way of prolonging the joy of the initial day. There are 50 days of Easter from the first Sunday to Pentecost. It is characterized, above all, by the joy of glorified life and the victory over death expressed most fully in the great resounding cry of the Christian: Alleluia! All faith flows from faith in the resurrection: "If Christ has not been raised, then empty is our preaching; empty, too, is your faith." (1 Cor 15:14) See Easter | USCCB

We also rejoice because the following brothers and sisters in our parish will celebrate their Sacraments of Initiation or complete one of the Sacraments at Easter Vigil. What a blessing to celebrate with them on this special night!

OCIA Candidates: Frances Z. Xu Lee, Christina Lopez, Ricky Yong, Gordon Tam, Shaopan Lin, Yu Mary Xiao, and Liqin William Zheng

Students: Joy Chen, Kaley Chen, Winnie Chen, Xinyue Chen, Abrahm Gutierrez, J'zalia Valdez, Jordan Valdez, and Samantha Franco

Finally we extend our warmest welcome to our parishioners, especially to those who have joined us in-person for the first time since the Pandemic and to all of our visitors.

May the Risen Lord fill you and your loved ones with abundant peace, love and joy.
Happy Easter!

Peace, Fr. Francis

Quote from Pope Francis:

The Way of the Cross alone defeats sin, evil and death, for it leads to the radiant light of Christ's resurrection and opens the horizons of a new and fuller life. It is the way of hope, the way of the future.

Mark your calendar for May 18-21, 2023. Feel free to join St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta Parish's annual Carnival Page on Facebook (St. Barbara Church Carnival 2023). Thank you! ~Wendy Kaput.

RESPECT LIFE

QUOTE:* "Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end.'" — USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "Respect Life Reflection: Christ Our Hope in Every Season of Life" (Pope Benedict XVI, Spe salvi © 2007, Libreria Editrice Vaticana.)

Our Prayers — * For all those receiving hospice care: May the care they receive bear witness to the gift of their lives; We pray to the Lord: * May the glory of the Resurrection inspire lasting hope in all who work to protect human life; We pray to the Lord:
