Gospel Lk 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law?

How do you read it?"

He said in reply,

"You shall love the Lord, your God,
with all your heart,
with all your being,
with all your strength,
and with all your mind,
and your neighbor as yourself."

He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus replied,

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho.

They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead.

A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.

Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.

But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight.

He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them.

Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him.

The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him.

If you spend more than what I have given you,

I shall repay you on my way back.'

Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?"

He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy."

Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

“May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit (Romans 15: 13).”

The Archdiocese of Chicago’s priests’ convocation was a success last week. Almost 400 of us gathered for four days of prayers, reflection, and sharing. The theme for this convocation was hope. We heard renowned speakers sharing their wisdom on:

How to find hope in Christ?

How to affirm hope in darkness?

How to have hope in the Priesthood?

How to share our hope with others?

How timely and appropriate for us to ponder about hope! After three years of dealing with the global pandemic, going through the difficult process of the Renew My Church, and constantly being reminded of the horrible death of the innocent lives caused by gun violence, we know what darkness is and the question is: where do we find hope and how are we people of hope living in a world filled with darkness?

As Christians, we know that our hope is in Christ. How do we experience the hope of Christ? How do we share that hope with others?

The word hope stands for healing, openness, peace and Eucharist. In order for us to have hope, we must seek for and offer healing to the wounded; we must be open to others and the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives; we must practice peace; and we must root our lives in the Eucharist.

I would like to invite us all to ask ourselves: How does the Eucharist offer us hope?

Eucharist, source and summit of our life and the life of the Church, calls us to practice gratitude, forgiveness and peace. All these virtues are essential parts of hope. In and through the Eucharist, we, the people of God, experience healing, openness and peace.

As we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, let us pray for hope and ask the Holy Spirit to empower each of us to be people of hope in a dark world.

Peace, Fr. Francis

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR by Fr. John Cuff

Catherine Booth, co-founder of the Salvation Army, was an electrifying preacher; wherever she went, crowds of people went to hear her message of hope: princes and nobles, beggars and homeless people. One night, after preaching in a certain city, a certain well-off lady invited Mrs. Booth to dinner. The lady's words of welcome as she arrived were: "My dear Mrs. Booth, that meeting was dreadful." "Whatever do you mean, dear?" asked Mrs. Booth. "Oh, when you were speaking, I was looking at those people opposite to me, those people you brought with you from London; their faces were so terrible, many of them. I don't think I shall sleep tonight!" "Why, dear, don't you know them?" Mrs. Booth asked. "Certainly not!" the hostess replied. "Well, that is interesting," Mrs. Booth said, "I did not bring them with me from London; they are your neighbors!"

The Golden Rule, "Love your neighbor as yourself," which we hear in today's Gospel, is not just a Christian thing. Every ancient religion, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, all have some variation of this noble precept. If the Golden Rule, then, was so well-known in ancient cultures, why did Jesus spend so much time teaching it as if it were something new? The reason is that He was teaching it with a completely new understanding. To the question the lawyer asks Jesus in today's Gospel, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus' answer is: Anyone and everyone without exception. The new thing then in Jesus' teaching of neighborly love is his insistence that all of humanity are one big neighborhood. That's the point he makes in the parable of the Good Samaritan. This outsider, who was regarded as Enemy Number One by the Jewish establishment simply because he was a Samaritan, was the one who by his compassion proved himself to be neighbor to the Jewish man in need.

The lady who invited Mrs. Booth to dinner understood her "neighbor" to be limited to those on her social and economic level. Mrs. Booth reminded her that her "neighbor" should include the nobodies of society. Like this lady, we all need to be reminded that the Christian understanding of "neighbor" admits of no borders. Today is the day to identify and tear down all the borders we have erected between those who belong to us and those who don't. Today's Gospel challenges us to dismantle these walls of division. This way we work with Jesus to realize his dream of the world as a neighborhood without borders by making ourselves neighbor to those in need.

Statement of Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, Archbishop of Chicago, on the July 4 mass shooting in Highland Park

July 4, 2022

I have been watching the news in horror as at least 6 are dead and many more were wounded after a gunman opened fire as families attended an Independence Day parade in Highland Park. What should have been a peaceful celebration of our nation's founding ended in unspeakable tragedy.

Please join me in praying for the victims and their loved ones, who never imagined a July 4 celebration could become a killing ground. Pray too for the safety of first responders as they pursue the person responsible for this tragedy. They bravely rushed into the danger to treat victims and to protect others from harm.

The parade reportedly had a heavy presence of police and fire vehicles, yet this shooter was able to wound at least two dozen people before he stopped, or was stopped, and fled. Victims ranged in age from 8 to 85. Weapons designed to rapidly destroy human bodies have no place in civil society.

It is barely July, and this year the United States is already experiencing more than one mass shooting a day. Chicago Police reported at least 55 shot and 7 killed since Friday, and the holiday weekend is not yet over. Gun violence is now the leading cause of death for U.S. children.

Whatever one makes of the right to bear arms, there is plenty of room for prudential judgment in interpreting the Second Amendment so as to enact serious, broadly popular gun-safety measures. The Senate finally passed a significant, yet modest, gun-safety bill last month. But clearly more must be done.

The right to bear arms does not eclipse the right to life, or the right of all Americans to go about their lives free of the fear that they might be shredded by bullets at any moment. Gun violence is a life issue. We must continue to pray that all our officials, elected and unelected alike, will redouble their commitment to keeping safe the people they have sworn to serve.

Pope Francis wrote to the people of Chicagoland in 2016: "As Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. said, humanity 'must evolve for all human conflict a method which rejects revenge, aggression and retaliation. The foundation of such a method is love.' I urge all people, especially young men and women, to respond to Dr. King's prophetic words and know that a culture of nonviolence is not an unattainable dream, but a path that has produced decisive results." May the Lord of mercy embrace in love those who have died, bring healing to the wounded, comfort to their loved ones, and courage to all of us, so that we may respond to this tragedy united as God's children to build a path to safety and peace.

A Message from Our Parish Finance Council:

2022 – 2023 New Weekly Collection Goal

First-of-all, THANK YOU for your contributions over the past year. We are truly blessed at St Mother Teresa of Calcutta and look forward to the upcoming year.

SMTC is budgeting a modest increase in our weekly Sunday collection. The new goal more accurately reflects the amount needed to break-even.

The best way to achieve our Sunday goal is to suggest that all donors increase our weekly offering just a little bit. A nominal $5 - $20 (or whatever you can afford) increase in weekly contribution would go a long way towards accomplishing the goal. Together we can do it.

SMTC offers a great return on your investment! Thank you in advance for yours.

Updates on St. Barb. Church's HVAC project and funding will be available on next weekend's bulletin.

PPC Meeting will take place on Monday, July 11th at 6:30pm at St. Barbara Site.

CHOIR CORNER NEWS!

Members of the St. Barbara Choir and the Men's Choir are joining forces to sing together at 9:30am Sunday Masses going forward! Hope to see—and hear—you soon!

Save the Date for a Parish

Musician Luncheon on Sunday, August 7, 12pm–2pm, at St. Barbara Lower Hall! We welcome current members, inactive members, and those interested in getting involved in the music ministry to join us as we share a meal and conversation. Details to follow in the weeks to come.

RESPECT LIFE

Quotes – * “O God our creator... through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.” — United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, “Prayer for Religious Liberty.” * “Adopting Andrew has made us more aware of God’s power and of his love for us. We realize that he always has a perfect plan for our lives.” Read more at www.bit.ly/AdoptionLoveStory. — USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, “An Adoption Love Story.”

Our Prayers – *For our nation: May our laws protect the right to life of every human being, from conception to natural death; We pray to the Lord: * For families considering adoption: May the Lord guide and bless their journeys and grant them peace along the way; We pray to the Lord.

Wisdom from Pope Francis

Pope Francis said, “What should a shepherd do? Be a shepherd and not going around condemning or not condemning.” “They must be a shepherd with God’s style. And God’s style is closeness, compassion and tenderness.”
