We pray for Ukraine and Russia and for all our brothers and sisters living in fear and for all victims of war. Lord, Raise up peacemakers, so that violence and war can end.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated on the weekend of Oct. 29 & 30 during all masses.

Why is this Sacrament so important?

Christ is our physician and He healed many during His earthly life and makes his disciples to share in his ministry of compassion and healing: "So they went out and preached that men should repent. And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick and healed them (#1506, Catechism of the Catholic Church).

Illness is part of human condition. Our human family has suffered physically, emotionally and spiritually during the global pandemic. We need God's healing power.

Who Receives this Sacrament?

The Anointing of the Sick "is not a Sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time from him to receive this Sacrament has certainly arrived (#1514, CCC).

If a sick person who received this anointing recovers his health, he can in the case of another grave illness receive this Sacrament again. If during the same illness the person's condition becomes more serious, the sacrament may be repeated. It is fitting to receive the Anointing of the sick just prior to a serious operation. The same holds for the elderly whose frailty becomes more pronounced (#1515, CCC).

What Can You Help with?

If you are able to, please bring other members who are homebound and may need assistance to Church so they can be anointed. If you know any parishioners who are in need of Anointing, but can't physically make it to church, please call our parish offices to arrange for a visit by our priests.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Today we join Catholics worldwide in the annual Eucharistic celebration of World Mission Sunday. We remember our common call to both live the mission that is entrusted to us and proclaim the person of Christ and His message. Pope Francis reflects on this year's theme: "You shall be my witnesses" (Acts 1:8). He emphasizes the call to every Christian to bear witness to Christ, to participate in a mission of universal evangelization, and to seek strength and guidance from the Holy Spirit.

Beginning in 1822, the universal fund of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith provided approximately seven million dollars in help to the new and growing Church in the United States. Blessed Pauline Jaricot began this work 200 years ago and established a network of prayer and collections for missionaries so that the faithful could actively participate in the mission "to the ends of the earth." Her vision would lead to World Mission Sunday, which helps the Pope support global missionary activity.

Your prayers and generous support today sustain communities of faith in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe as they proclaim the Gospel, build the Church, and serve the poor. When you contribute to the World Mission Sunday collection, you provide for the formation of our seminarians and religious men and women. You assist in building the schools and orphanages that care for children in places few visit. Missionaries can build churches in areas with scarce resources. Priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay leaders can buy food and the bare essentials that make it possible to proclaim the Gospel and celebrate the Sacraments.

In this bicentennial anniversary year, I encourage your generosity on World Mission Sunday. Your prayers remain your greatest gift, and your financial support is life-giving to our brothers and sisters in the world's most vulnerable communities. Wishing you every blessing, with kind regards I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Who We Are by Sr. Caritas

The first sentence of today's Gospel sets the focus of the entire Gospel. "The Gospel is addressed" to those who were focused on their own righteousness and "despised everyone else." They consider themselves better than anyone else. It is important that we have a clear understanding of who we are before God. The first person in the story sees themselves as better than anyone else. The second person in the Gospel stands before God and recognizes their position before God. "Have mercy on me a sinner."

This Gospel is challenging each of us to look at ourselves standing deeply in the Presence of God. Before God, can we see ourselves as loved sinners? It is the fact that we are sinners which draws us into the relationship of salvation with Jesus, our savior. He redeems us from our sinfulness and loves us so much that He gives up His life for each of us. The second person recognizes he is a sinner. Standing before God recognizing they are a sinner places the person in the true stance before God. However, humbles himself will be exalted. They will be raised up before God. We are called to this stance before God, recognizing who we are.

Heart-to-Heart With God: Part 3

By Roberta Cheong

When I think about the things I'm meant to do and learn in life, I think, "I still have 20 more years to do it. It's not too late. It'll happen in God's time if it's His will." This way of thinking gives me hope. If God pours out His ocean of mercy on my soul, then I hope to get to sing for God on Earth for 20 more years, and then I'll be singing for Him along with the saints and choirs of angels in Heaven. I get 20 more years to walk with God on Earth, and then I hope for an eternity to walk with Him in Heaven. I want to read the entire Bible and the Catechism from beginning to end. It's not too late for me to learn Latin—the official language of the Catholic Church, learn how to make rosaries and then give them out when I evangelize, and learn how to grow my own food and make bread. I want to do as much good as I can before I die—more good deeds and works of mercy, especially for the homeless and those in need. I want to start a program at my nursing home where parishioners from a local church come to visit the lonely patients whose family and friends never come to visit them. It's not too late to try to understand other people more and be more considerate of others. It's never too late to make a difference. It's not too late to handwrite more letters to my aunts and uncles who live overseas and keep in touch with them more often. I still have time to be a loving aunt. I still have time to get a kidney transplant, if that is God's will. In regard to life, it's not how it starts, it's how it ends that matter—It's never too late to draw close to God and become a better person.

While there are many things I hope to do in the next 20 years, the only thing that matters to me is doing the will of God. "The world and its enticement are passing away. But whoever does the will of God remains forever" (1 John 2:17). To me, Heaven is the goal of life. To be with God forever is what I want the most. I no longer believe that life is about checking things off of my bucket list and experiencing everything I want to before I die. Now I live with a mindset of seeking first the kingdom of God, doing what will help me be holy, with an understanding that my time on Earth is very brief, and my eyes focused on getting to Heaven. Jesus said in Matthew 7:21, "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven."

What is the will of God? There's God's will that applies to all of humanity, and then there's God's unique will for each individual and His reason for creating each of us. The answer to the latter can only be found inside our soul and during our one-on-one prayer with God. I believe the answer to the former can be found in the Bible, when the rich young man asked Jesus, "Teacher, what good must I do to gain eternal life?" Jesus answered, "If you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments." The young man said to him, "All of these I have observed. What do I still lack?" Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to [the] poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me" (Matthew 19:16-21).

ST. BARBARA CHURCH'S HVAC PROJECT

We are very excited to report that the St. Barb HVAC project is under way, with installation expected to be completed soon. The total cost of the project is estimated to be $300,000, but the good news is that we already have $100,000 funded via "To Teach Who Christ Is" and another $100,000 secured by donor matching fund pledges...which means our fundraising goal by the end of October 2022 is now only $100,000!

This is where we need your help! Please help us complete this project by donating through weekly, monthly, or one-time envelopes; or to donate online via GiveCentral, just scan the QR code here, or visit <https://www.givecentral.org/location/445/event/34206>. Please let us know if you need assistance donating online.

As of October 17th, we have received $24,885 toward this goal. Thank you to all our donors!

GOAL
