THANKS & CONGRATULATIONS

Thanks to our Alums, Aaron Tang, Bruce Garner, Vivian Kusnoto and Carl DiFranco for sharing their faith at the last Living-Well Series. It was so inspirational to hear our young people witnessing their faith despite of all the challenges they face. We are grateful to their involvement in our Church and in their respective schools. Thanks to Frances Lee for being our moderator and all members of the Living Well committee for their hard work to make the event another success.

Congratulations to Benjamin Jimenez, child of Maria Szech and Juan Jimenez! Benjamin was baptized last Sunday at St. Barbara. We welcome him and his family and assure them of our prayers.

Go to Mary

May is a special time we honor our earthly mothers as well as our heavenly mother. Mothers are special in our lives. They give birth to us, nurture us and sustain us. We go to them when we are in trouble as well as when we are happy. We trust our mothers in their tender and unconditional love for us.

Redeemed by reason of the merits of her Son and united to Him by a close and indissoluble tie, she is endowed with the high office and dignity of being the Mother of the Son of God, by which account she is also the beloved daughter of the Father and the temple of the Holy Spirit. Because of this gift of sublime grace she far surpasses all creatures, both in heaven and on earth. At the same time, however, because she belongs to the offspring of Adam she is one with all those who are to be saved. (Lumen Gentium, no. 53)

As we celebrate Mother's Day, we show our special appreciation and love for them especially on this day. This May we honor our heavenly mother with a few opportunities of participating in May Crowning. Last Tuesday, we had our first May crowning with our school community. Our 8th Graders did an amazing job. The next May Crowning will be on Sunday at the 9:30am mass at St. Barbara and then at the 10:30am mass on Sunday May 21st at St. Therese. I invite you and your families to make special efforts to join our community at these important celebrations in honoring our Heavenly Mother.

Mary, Mother of God, pray for us and for our parish!

Peace, Fr. Francis

Blessing Prayer for Nurses

Loving God,
Bless all nurses, especially those at this Mass, and those in our parish.
Keep them healthy and strong in all areas of their lives.
Protect their families, their marriages, their children, and their futures.
Provide them with physical, emotional, and spiritual rest.
Help them not to "grow weary in doing good" (Galatians 6:9) and build them up when they break down.
Bless them with so much compassion that it spills effortlessly into their patients' lives.
Be their backbone, their living water, and the one who continually fills them with your love for all God's people, especially those in their care.
We ask this in the name of Jesus,
the Great Healer.
Amen

THE APOSTLES' NEEDLESS FEAR by Fr. Cuff

Five-year old Jimmy is in the kitchen as his mom prepares dinner. She asks him to go to the basement and fetch her a can of tomato soup. "It's dark in there and I'm scared," replies Jimmy. Mom tries to convince him that it's safe to go alone to the basement but without much success. Finally she says "It's OK, Jimmy, Jesus will be in there with you." Jimmy walks hesitantly to the door and slowly opens it. He peeps inside, sees that it's still dark in there, and starts to go back. Then he gets an idea. He opens the basement door a little and yells: "Jesus, if you're down there, would you hand me up a can of tomato soup, please?"

Jimmy's fear is like that of the disciples. As the time draws near for Jesus to leave them, they're afraid to face the world alone. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus does pretty much what Jimmy's mother tried to do, namely, convince them that there is no need to be afraid, even when they'll not see Him. "Do not let your hearts be troubled," He says. He asks them to master their fears, and the reason he gives is both simple and profound: "You believe in God, believe also in me." It is easy to believe in God, a spiritual being that we cannot see. The challenge is to believe that God is present in ordinary, flesh-and-blood human beings whom we know all too well, ordinary human beings who are often lacking in knowledge, in love, and in moral strength. To believe in God is the easy part; to believe, not only in Himself, but also in our frail fellow human beings is the hard part. In other words, the disciples see God in Jesus. So long as He's around, there's no fear. But they don't see God in their all-too-human fellow disciples. The disciples put Jesus on a different level from themselves. But Jesus is trying to convince them that if God could work through Him, Jesus, then God could as well work through any other human being. Thus God can use them and work through them also, in spite of their human deficiencies: "I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father."

God's always with us, so we shouldn't let our hearts be troubled. We believe in God, so let us now also believe in each other, men and women of faith, through whom He continues to work.

RESPECT LIFE

Quote – Without a foundational, practical formation, it is difficult for our consciences to guide us well in concrete situations. As Catholics, we have the immense gift of the teaching authority of the Catholic Church and can turn to it for help forming our consciences. For example, learning about Christian moral principles, reading the Catechism of the Catholic Church, or researching what the Church says about a challenging teaching will help us grow in knowledge of the truth" (Understanding Conscience | USCCB)

Our Prayer – For those in public office: May they work to enact laws that protect and safeguard the gift of human life; We pray to the Lord
