Archdiocesan Center for Chinese Apostolate

聖德肋撒堂區 總教區華人牧靈中心

July 3, 2022
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

God bless America and all the nations of the earth.
Bless us with freedom,
That none may be oppressed or unjustly treated.
Bless us with prosperity,
That all peoples might share abundantly from the produce of the earth.
Bless us with responsibility,
That we might properly steward your good creation.
Bless us with generosity,
That the barriers between the haves and the have nots may be broken down.
Bless us with caring,
That we might reach out with love and compassion
to neighbours everywhere.
Bless us with faith,
That we might believe you are creating a new
heaven and a new earth,
Where you will once more dwell in our midst, Wiping away our tears, overcoming death and sorrow and pain.
Bless us with the eternal life of your kingdom,
Where together with all the peoples of the earth,
We will dwell together in peace and harmony and love.

HAPPY 4TH OF JULY!

Father of all nations and ages,
today we rededicate ourselves to your service,
and to the works of justice and freedom for all.

As you have called us from many people
to be one nation,
help us to give witness in our lives
and in our life as a nation
to the rich diversity of your gifts.

Grant that under your providence
our country may share your blessings,
with all the peoples of the earth.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

~ Amen

(from the Catholic Sacramentary, combined Collect)

For The Nation

Lord God Almighty, who has made all peoples of the earth for your glory, to serve you in freedom and peace: Grant to the people of our country a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with your gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

– Episcopal Book of Common Prayer, p258

On Independence Day

Lord God Almighty, in whose Name the founders of this country won liberty for themselves and for us, and lit the torch of freedom for nations then unborn: Grant that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain our liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

– Episcopal Book of Common Prayer, p242

“Grant that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain our liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

Peace, Fr. Francis

MURPHY'S GREAT SURPRISE by Fr. John Cuff

In today's Gospel, the 72 disciples are sent out to proclaim the Good News that the Kingdom of God is near. Here's a story told of what that Kingdom may look like:

Old Mr. Murphy loved his native land Ireland. He worked and toiled on its land when he was young. He poured his sweat into its rich soil. He raised his sons and daughters on its fertile ground. When the invader came, he fought for its freedom. When too old to till the soil, he used the time to travel its length and breadth to enjoy its treasures. Murphy loved Ireland so much that when it came time to die, he had his sons carry him outside so that he could lay next to the ground. There he grabbed a handful of earth to hold onto. And that's the way he died, and that's the way they buried him, still clutching that precious clump of soil to his heart.

When he got to heaven's gate, God came out to meet him. God told him he was a good man and welcomed him into heaven. Oh, but one thing. God said that he couldn't bring that dirt into heaven. But Murphy couldn't let go of it, he loved Ireland so much. So, God left Murphy standing at heaven's gate and went back inside.

Years passed and God came out again, this time appearing as one of Murphy's drinking buddies. They chatted and joked as they recalled the good old times. Then God invited Murphy to come on in now to heaven, but to let go of that dirt he was still holding onto. But Murphy couldn't, he loved Ireland so much. So again, God had to leave him there standing at heaven's gate.

After a few more years, God appeared as Murphy's granddaughter; she came out of heaven's gate and told him how much everyone missed him and begged him to come inside. By this time Murphy's joints had stiffened and his hands could no longer clutch the precious handful of earth he was trying to take with him. The soil fell from his hands and God brought old Murphy inside. Once inside he couldn't believe it; there before his eyes was his beloved Ireland and much more besides.

Sometimes people can be so enamored of the little bits and pieces of God's creation that they have a hold on in this life, that they can't believe there could be anything better. But if we open ourselves in faith to whatever God asks of us, open ourselves to the glory that Christ promises to those disciples who follow him, we'll already begin to know God's Kingdom. Then we will understand Jesus' parables of a treasure buried in a field or a pearl of great price. Then we will encounter what "Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, nor has it entered into the heart of man, the good things God has prepared for those who love Him." The Kingdom is something we cannot see now, but it is near to those who are living their faith. It is joy beyond imagining. This is the Good News of the Gospel; this is the message of Jesus in a nutshell, and the proclamation of the 72: "The Kingdom of God is at hand."

FOLLOW JESUS by Sister Caritas

When each of us makes a decision to follow a certain path, or make a special choice, we often end up also choosing to leave a lot behind. We cannot make our new choice and destiny without also having to. We cannot go north and south at the same time. These are opposite directions. We can go in the same directions at the same time. We must let one choice behind.

In our Gospel today, someone wanted to follow Jesus and also say "good bye to his father at the same time. Another wanted to follow Jesus and still have a comfortable place to reside. Both things, Jesus said, were not possible and compatible with each other. Sacrifice was inherent in following Jesus. Today this is still true. If we want to completely follow Jesus, we have to let some things go.

In each of our lives we are challenged to follow Jesus. To do so, we must give up sinful ways. To completely follow Jesus, we must walk in His way. Can you do this? Can "We" do this? In "His Ways," we are called to make those kinds of letting go choices. Each of us must look at all the parts of our life. Anything that does not fit the pattern of Jesus life, must go. The sacrifice must be made. Are you "up to the results of your choice?" Jesus says, "Come follow me." Loving Jesus completely calls us to give ourselves without reserve. We can do this with God's grace and help. It requires an entire YES to Jesus.

ST. MOTHER TERESA OF CALCUTTA PARISH
@ ST. THERESE CHURCH

This is our parish's biggest event of the year--not only financially, but in terms of our presence in Chinatown and promotion of the church to all visitors.

This event would not be possible without your help and support!

A Prayer for Independence Day

Guide us as we work together to build a society in which everyone has the opportunity to live with dignity and hope. Help us to be witnesses of Christ's love by practicing charity and promoting justice and peace throughout the world. Strengthen us with fortitude to choose the values of our faith as we exercise Our responsibility as citizens. Inspire us to build a world of greater respect for human life and dignity. Restore us when our spirit grows weary, and bless us in our journey home to You.

Nights of Mercy

Vicariates II and III, and the Franciscans of the Eucharist of Chicago invite you to join us for Nights of Mercy this summer and early fall. Each evening will include Adoration, music, Confession, and street evangelization from 6 – 8:30 p.m. at the following locations:

Friday, July 15 – St. Alphonsus

Friday, August 26 – St. Jerome Croatian Church

Friday, September 23 – Bl. Carlo Acutis at St. Hedwig

Contact Sr. Jaime Mitchell at jmitchell@archchicago.org with any questions. We hope you can join us – it is a great way to prepare for the Eucharistic Revival.
