We pray for Ukraine and Russia and for all our brothers and sisters living in fear and for all victims of war. Lord, Raise up peacemakers, so that violence and war can end.

Thanks

Our annual celebration of St. Rocco was absolutely beautiful! Thank God for the wonderful weather and thanks to all the officers and members of the St. Rocco Society for working so hard to make the Mass, procession, Benediction and dinner so memorable.

Welcome our Teachers, Staff & Students Back!

Summer goes by so fast. This past week, our school teachers and staff have returned to school to do their preparation for another new school year. We have been blessed to have almost all of our teachers back and to welcome a couple of new ones. Sr. Ria Angostura will be our new Director of Lifelong Formation (also known as DRE); Derrick Chariker will be our full time religion teacher; and Joe Delfin will be our new Music Director. We welcome them on board. When you meet them in person, please extend our St. Mother Teresa's warm hospitality to each of them. Derrick's short introduction is included in this week's bulletin. Sr. Rea's and Joe's will come soon.

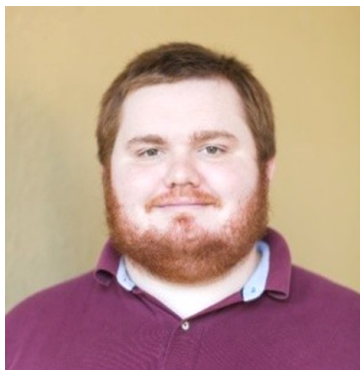

The theme for this year's Religion Professional Development was "Synod and Us : Communion , Participation, and Mission Sub: Teacher : The Protagonist of Diversity and Inclusivity Toward Communion, Participation, and Mission In Educational and Parish Community Settings." Pope Francis says, : "A synodal church is a church that listens, all listening to each other, listening to the cry of the poor, and reaching out to those who are marginalized, all listening to the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of truth in order to know what he says to the Churches."

Our teachers had a wonderful opportunity to discuss the significance of "communion, participation, and mission" as a community and as individuals.

Tomorrow Aug. 21st is the first day of our school. We welcome our students and staff to a new school year. I am looking forward to visiting and praying with them. I invite all of you to keep our children, teachers, and staff in your prayers. May the good Lord bless them with a fruitful and peaceful year.

Peace, Fr. Francis

Derrick Chariker---Religion Teacher

My name is Derrick Chariker and I will be the Religion teacher at St. Therese Chinese Catholic School for the school year. I moved to Chicago two years ago from South Carolina, so you might hear an accent. It has been wonderful getting to experience so many people from different countries, cultures, and ways of life. Coming into the Catholic Church during my college years at the University of South Carolina, I have been an active Catholic and find joy in helping and treating people the way Christ teaches us to. My hobbies vary wildly from learning computer science/technology to reading, I love fantasy/sci-fi and horror the most, to being an avid sports fan, I love the White Sox and Blackhawks. I am pretty open, so if you have questions please ask, and if I don't have the answer, I will do my best to find it for you.

THE CANAANITE WOMAN'S PERSEVERENCE

By Fr. John Cuff

Mahatma Gandhi in his autobiography tells how, during his student days, he read the Gospels and saw in the teachings of Jesus the answer to the major problem facing the people of India, the caste system. Seriously considering embracing the Christian faith, Gandhi attended church one Sunday morning intending to talk to the minister about the idea. On entering the church, however, the usher refused to give him a seat and told him to go and worship with his own people. Gandhi left the church and never returned. "If Christians have caste differences also," he said, "I might as well remain a Hindu."

The belief that God's blessings are meant for some peoples or cultures has been around for centuries; such a belief was quite prevalent in Jewish society in which Jesus grew up; he may have been guilty of a certain religious bias himself. When Jesus said in today's Gospel reading, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel," he may have been reflecting a certain popular bias. It's not clear whether he really believed it himself or whether he said it just in order to expose and correct its false claims. Every people and culture has a handful of such prejudices and myths – from the myth of the Jews as the only people of God to the exclusion of all others, to the prejudice of the caste system in India. Indeed, it took the perseverance of a Canaanite woman to create an awareness among early Jewish Christians that their belief in the exclusive divine prerogatives of the Jewish people did not stand up to reason. It's probable that you and I owe the fact that we are Christians today to the heroism of this unnamed woman who helped dismantle the dividing wall of intolerance between Jews and Gentiles. Given her status as a foreigner and as a woman, it took phenomenal courage on her part to decide to take on the all-Jewish and all-male company of Jesus and his disciples in today's Gospel. Even though she addresses Jesus by his proper Messianic title: "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David," Jesus still ignores her: "He did not answer her at all." Most people would have given up at this point, but this Canaanite woman instead intensified her efforts. And her courage and her refusal to take no for an answer finally pays off. When Jesus says, "It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs," she doesn't lose her cool but keeps her eyes on the goal of her mission, which was to show that even non-Jews are entitled to God's blessings in Christ. Finally, it is Jesus who gives in: "Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish," and the woman gets what she wanted. Jesus' gradual appreciation that faith may have been given to gentiles beyond Jewish borders is also suggested when he elsewhere says, concerning the Roman centurion, "Amen I say to you, I have not found so great a faith in Israel." So let's not be afraid to challenge prejudice and falsity even in high places, even in religious high places. The least among us can be a vehicle that God can use to bring justice and healing to all of God's disadvantaged daughters and sons all over the world.

RESPECT LIFE

Quote – "God's love—individual, real, unchanging—is the true source of our worth, identity, and dignity. It really is not a question of who we are, but rather whose we are. Because his love will never change, nothing can reduce our God-given dignity, and nothing can diminish the immeasurable worth of our lives." — USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "How to Build a Culture of Life."

Our Prayer – For all Catholics: That we may steadfastly proclaim and uphold the dignity of all human life, in all stages and circumstances; We pray to the Lord:

"Life is a song, sing it. Life is a struggle, accept it."
