RMC: Update for St. Barbara Campus of St. Therese Chinese Catholic School

- 1. Give Away Tables: In a similar spirit of the recent Bingo-sponsored “Christmas in July”, there are some things that have been found during the 2019-20 school year preparation activities that may be of interest to current or former St. Barbara students and alumni. These items include SBS school sweatshirts, pants, books, old computer programs, CD-ROMs, VHS tapes, an old-school microwave, water cooler, signage, door mats, and more! Feel free to come to the school (please enter at the main door) all next week between the hours of 12:30 pm and 2:30 pm. Items will be set up outside the main office and are free for the taking.
- 2. Awnings at St. Barbara Campus Building: As has been previously communicated, we have been evaluating the signage in our School and Parish. The current awnings will be taken down during the week of August 5th to allow time to craft new awnings. Additionally, we will be updating signage inside and around the school building. The new awnings and signage are scheduled to be installed before school resumes on Tuesday, August 27th.

Thursday Night Bingo is always looking for volunteers. If you would like to help us, we have openings for sellers and kitchen help. Please give Jim Bertucci a call (312) 835-5411. This is a great way to help support our combined parish.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Thanks

Joyful gratitude and thanks to Chris Lowe, Jennifer Sin and Janice Lin for coordinating and leading our booth in this year's Summer Fair again. Thanks to Daniel Rak for being our driver and thanks to Eva Mrgan and Ken Ricci for representing St. Barbara at the dunk tank. There are so many people to be grateful for. Because of you, we had another successful and enjoyable fundraiser. Despite the rainy weather, our net profit for the day is $12,629. A detailed thank you, financial report and more photos are included in this weekend's St. Therese bulletin

We are called and we are sent!

Today's readings remind us that "one's life does not consist of possessions", and we have no control over our death. They urge us to store up treasures in heaven. Cardinal George in his last days on earth wisely said, "The only thing we take with us when we die is what we have given away." What we want to take with us is what we need to work on now. We are not talking about material possessions, but spiritual matters.

In the last two weeks, our unified parish staff members have reflected on, and shared the gifts that God has given to each of them and our common gift of the Eucharist that God has left for all of us. We all are gifted. How we use our gift is our response to God's generosity, compassion and promise of salvation to us.

In Co-workers in the Vineyard, the United States Conference of the Catholic Bishops reminds all Catholics of our call as stated in the Second Vatican Council "that all Christians in whatever state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life and to the perfection of charity, and this holiness is conducive to a more human way of living even in society here on earth."

This call is also lived out in the ways that we participate in the life of our Church and of our parish. For example; extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, readers, cantors and choir members, catechists, pastoral council members, visitors to the sick and needy, those who serve in programs such as sacramental preparation, youth ministry, ministry to people with disabilities, and charity and justice.

We have so many dedicated lay ministers and volunteers in our parish and for them we are so grateful. I am also very pleased and thankful to announce the following ministers who have said "yes" to God's call during the last two weeks at the St. Barbara worship site:

Coordinator of the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion: Bette Pienta
(And thanks to Fabiola Cabrera for her years of service in this role.)

Coordinator of Ministry of Care: Fr. Lukas Ouda

Head Greeter/Usher at the 5pm Vigil Mass: Adrian Goetz

Head Greeter/Usher at the 9:30am Mass: Jeff Spaargaren

New Lectors at the 5:00pm Vigil Mass: Ellen Andriacchi and Debbie Annoreno

New Greeter/Usher at the 5:00pm Vigil Mass: Nick Andriacchi

New Greeters/Ushers at the 9:30am Mass: Ron Gortowski and Ruth Davidson

Are you called to be involved in our parish? Would you like to share your God-given gifts more with our brothers and sisters? Please take some time to pray this week and consider joining one or more of our ministries. Our parish needs you and your involvement is greatly appreciated.

Let me conclude with the wise words from St. John Paul II at the closing of the Great Jubilee of the year 2000 that ring true for our Church and our Parish today:

The unity of the Church is not uniformity, but an organic blending of legitimate diversities. It is the reality of many members joined in a single body, the one Body of Christ (cf. 1 Cor 12:12). Therefore the Church of the Third Millennium will need to encourage all the baptized and confirmed to be aware of their active responsibility in the Church's life. Together with the ordained ministry, other ministries, whether formally instituted or simply recognized, can flourish for the good of the whole community, sustaining it in all its many needs: from catechesis to liturgy, from education of the young to the widest array of charitable works.

Peace

Fr. Francis

Building the New Reality

8/04/19

Mary Magdalene, the first witness of the resurrection, is a perfect saint for our parish at this critical juncture of building a new reality.

The Apostolic challenge of Renew My Church challenge is threefold: to build community, make disciples and inspire witness.

I guess you could say that these last three points represent the 'New Reality' of life in Catholic parishes in the Archdiocese of Chicago. After Mary Magdalene returned to announce the news of the resurrection with the rest of the disciples, community life radically changed. As you can tell, things are also changing here!

The following two Archdiocesan events will undoubtedly help us during this time of transition.

On Friday, Sept. 6th, a handful of us will be gathering at St. John Brebeuf Parish Ministry Center with the Renew My Church team to explore this theme of building the new reality. We hope to bring back a skill set to share with everyone on how to make new disciples at our parish. Please pray for us. Father Li has already selected his team to attend.

On Wednesday, September 18th, from 5:30-9 p.m., a larger group of us are invited to go to St. Mary of the Angels for Vitality Day. This evening is sponsored by the Office for Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship. Please consider coming. If you are able to come, please email me at Thoward@sttheresechicago.org or Father Li at Flisttherese@gmail.com. We hope that at least 40 of us can attend on September 18th.

St. Mary Magdalene, pray for us, as St. Barbara/St. Therese Parish builds the new reality.

God Bless

Tom Howard

Just Today

Every day we get up and begin our day and have many plans. We save our hard earned money for the future, for our retirement. We work very hard to provide for our families and to have what our families need. Some young people, when asked what they want to do with their lives, say, "I want to be rich".

Our readings today talk about living our life now. We are reminded we should not be surprised if we have sorrows, grief and worry. All these everyday worries are "vanity. All is vanity." In our second reading, St. Paul reminds us that we should be "dead to our old selves". He writes telling the early Christians to "stop lying to each other, give up impurity, evil passions" and other ways of our ordinary life. We have "put on Christ. We are a new creation." There is no more "Greek or Jew", "slave or free", "St. Barbara or St. Therese". We are all one in Christ Jesus. Jesus tells us in His parable story that we should not seek to pile up material goods and riches and worry about the future. His story reminds us we never know when, where, or how we will die. When we die, where will all our treasures and riches go?

Many spiritual writers and teachers speak of living in the present moment. In reality we do not have the past. All that is left are memories, if we can remember. We do not yet have the future. It is not given to us yet. All we have is the present moment and the next moment and the next hour, or day, or what God gives us in our lives. What we are called to do is keep Jesus' law of love. We are called to remember God is with us in this present moment. We are asked to do the best we can at this moment, not looking over our shoulder at the past or running thoughtlessly forward toward the future with no concern for the "matters of God". Today, this part of the day is given to us. Embrace each moment, offering God the love of our mind and heart, strength and will. Today is the gift God gives us. Walk in Jesus' footprints. He shows us the way. Give each part of the day to God, knowing He walks with us, walks beside us, and often holds us in His arms on the way.
